Just A Quarter

Several years ago a preacher moved to Houston, Texas. Some weeks after he arrived, he rode the bus from his home to the downtown area. When he sat down, he discovered that the bus driver had accidentally given him a quarter too much change. As he considered what to do, he thought to himself "You better give the quarter back. It would be wrong to keep it."

Then he thought, "Oh, forget it, it's only quarter. Who would worry about this little of an amount? Anyway, the bus company already gets too much fare; they will never miss it. Accept it as a gift from God and keep quiet."

When his stop came, he paused momentarily at the door, and then he handed the quarter to the bus driver and said "Here you gave me too much change." The driver, with a smile replied, "Aren't you the new preacher in town? I have been thinking about going to worship somewhere. I just wanted to see what you would do if gave you too much change."

When my friend stepped off the bus, he literally grabbed the nearest light pole, and held on, and said, "Oh, God, I almost sold your Son for a quarter."

Our lives are the only Bible some people will ever read.

Be encouraged.

Notes From Steve

Reflections upon the Ethiopian Eunuch: (Acts 8:26-40)

- He was a trusted and loyal servant.
- He was a worshipper of the one true God.
- He studied his Bible.
- He asked questions.
- He sought answers.
- He had an open mind.
- He separated fact from fiction, truth from error.
- He understood that Jesus must have a prominent role in his life.
- He believed Jesus was the Christ, the Son of the Living God.
- He understood he had to be baptized.
- He was baptized.
- He went home full of joy knowing he had found redemption.

We would recognize this man as an honest, hard working, religious person. However, as Phillip explained that Jesus was the Christ and that salvation flowed through the Savior, this treasurer knew that his life was incomplete. The Ethiopian realized he had to meet Jesus on the Lord's terms. He had tremendous, admirable qualities, the kind that any society would love for their citizenry to have. But personally, the man from Ethiopia still had a void in his soul that only Jesus Christ of Nazareth could fill. In Jesus, the eunuch found the missing ingredient.

"Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." Romans 15:13
