Notes From Steve

A wonderful Savior is Jesus my Lord! What an inspiring and true lyric this is! Jesus is the centerpiece of salvation and love. He perfectly obeyed the Father and gave His life for you and me. All of mankind is so blessed because of the Christ and the invitation to join Him in the place He is preparing for the prepared (John 14:1-4.)

The true God of heaven desires that we all acknowledge Him and save our souls. Paul told the Thessalonians, "For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ..." (I Thess. 5:9.) He truly wants for His creation a life spent in eternal bliss. Again, this is why the Father offered His Son as a sacrifice, pouring on Him the wrath of sin. When Jesus cried while nailed to the cross, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" He was not necessarily shouting because of the physical pain. He was screaming from the pain and anguish of having OUR SINS thrust upon Him. The sinless drinking our sin.

Our wonderful Savior endured the agony that is the cross and is now reigning in glory as the King of Kings and Lord of Lords (I Tim. 6:15; Rev. 17:14.) Evaluate your life and pledge full allegiance to Jesus, because only through Him will one have an eternal existence with Him. "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:6.)

Someday

During our past years, we have known many people who have met their appointment with death (Hebrews 9:27). Some have been our precious loved ones, friends, and spiritual brothers and sisters in Christ. In fact, almost every day of our lives we either read or hear about someone dying. However, as a general rule, we think about someone else dying rather than ourselves!

But refusing to think about death and always applying the reality of it to others does not change the fact that our time will come to leave this earth. This fact is the reason why Jesus often used such words as "Now," "Watch," "be Prepared," and "be Ready!"

Yet, thousands who have either read or heard such Scriptures taught, never get around to preparing for death and eternity. They may make excuses, promise to prepare later, and even show their emotions when the subject is discussed, but their plans always involve tomorrow.

For example, when Paul reasoned with Felix "about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was afraid and answered, 'Go away for now; when I have a convenient time I will call for you'" (Acts 24:25). But we never read in the Bible or in man's history, where a convenient season came for him!

How serious do we take OUR appointment with death? Where are the priorities in our lives? Are physical things that are so temporary in nature, ruling our lives, or is the kingdom of God and His righteousness receiving first place? (Matthew 6:33).

While thinking about the seriousness of our appointment with death, I wrote the following thoughts:

Someday, we will come to the end of life's way
Someday, we will breath our last to end earth's stay
Someday, our friends and loved ones will say,
 We have departed for an eternal day.

Someday, we will give account for our earthly stay
Someday, we will face the Judge of endless days
 So let us live in such a way
 As though, Someday may be today! —
