**Bulletin List Update**

It has been approximately 5 years since we last did a bulletin list update. During that time it is very likely that some no longer desire to receive the bulletin. and we don't know unless we ask.

All members and those presently attending will continue to receive the bulletin. But, if you are NOT A MEMBER OR DO NOT ATTEND AT BYBEE BRANCH, then you will need to let us know that you wish to continue to receive the bulletin. Many have already done so.

To continue to receive the Bybee Banner you may call 473-2486, send email to preacher@bybeebranch.org, or a note to P.O. Box 147, McMinnville, TN 37111-0147. We have allotted the month of October as a time for everyone to respond, however after that date, those who have not responded will be dropped.

Notes From Steve

"How lonely sits the city That was full of people! How like a widow is she, Who was great among the nations! The princess among the provinces Has become a slave!" (Lamentations 1:1) Such was the appraisal of the once proud city and people of Jerusalem. Jeremiah's vivid description of the Babylonian takeover of Jerusalem is chilling. Nebuchadnezzar besieged the city, which brought mass starvation, along with Judah's army fleeing in droves. Zedekiah, the king of Judah who was apparently part of the group fleeing, was captured and forced to watch his children killed before having his own eyes "put out." Finally, the city itself was dismantled. Nothing but total destruction took place, including the house of the Lord. Even the items from the house of the Lord were carried to Babylon. (Jeremiah 52)

Two thoughts come to mind while considering this sad and sorry affair.

First: God keeps promises. The Israelites before entering the land God provided knew that:

1. Through Abraham a land had been promised: "Also I give to you and your descendants after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their God." (Genesis 17:8)
2. Through Moses the land could be taken away: "See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil, in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, that you may live and multiply; and the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you go to possess. But if your heart turns away so that you do not hear, and are drawn away, and worship other gods and serve them, I announce to you today that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to go in and possess." (Deuteronomy 30:15-18)

The Israelites did allow their hearts to be swayed and worshipped false gods. Therefore the calamity that Jeremiah described.

However, we can take this thought a step further. Many passages could be used that declare God promised a Messiah, such as Psalm 72 and Isaiah 53. Needless to say, this is clear prophecy of a coming Savior and indeed someone did arrive – "And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name JESUS, for He will save His people from their sins" (Matthew 1:21; Isaiah 7:14.) When Jesus officially went "public", people immediately began to realize the promise of a Redeemer had arrived. Andrew was beside himself when telling his brother "We have found the Messiah" (John 1:41.) The Samaritan woman was so taken aback by her conversation with Jesus she rushed back to town and asked, "Could this be the Christ?" Then the men, after hearing Jesus themselves, told the woman, "Now we believe, not because of what you said, for we ourselves have heard Him and we know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world." (John 4:29; 42) So, just as God promised, He did send a Savior into the world.

God promised salvation by faith and obedience in Christ Jesus and everyone can claim his or her crown. (1 Cor. 9:25; II Tim. 4:8; James 1:12; I Peter 5:4; Rev. 2:10) However, he also promised that salvation – even after obeying the gospel – could be taken away (JUST LIKE THE PROMISED LAND TAKEN FROM THE ISRAELITES.) A person's heart can become so hardened that they may never obey the gospel and be lost forever. Jesus described some of these people in Matthew 13:11-17. But arguably the saddest notion is the one who obeyed the gospel and fell right back into the pig's mire. Again, one can forfeit his or her reservations in heaven. Read very carefully I Corinthians 10:1-13. Paul is describing the "chosen ones" who left Egypt headed for the promised land. Many did not make it out of the wilderness! Paul then concludes, "Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it." (vs. 12-13) Why do Christians need to beware of falling? Why do Christians need a way of escape? The reason is just because one is saved, does not mean he or she is safe.

This leads to our second thought that we will conclude next week: God does not force us to listen.
