Notes From Steve

All of us, at one point or another, have peered into a seemingly endless portal of sorrow and despair. The times when all hope seems lost and there is no rescue in sight. What a sense of joy and relief, however, when the light of life that was flickering suddenly springs to life and is renewed. Such was the case with Jonah.

"Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the fish's belly. And he said: "I cried out to the LORD because of my affliction, And He answered me. "Out of the belly of Sheol I cried, And You heard my voice"" (Jonah 2:1-2.) Jonah was certainly in great despair, to say the least! But the determination to place his fate in the hands of the Almighty proved quite beneficiary. Jonah prayed to the Creator knowing that "Salvation is of the Lord" and was saved from the great fish God had prepared (Jonah 2:9.) Our goal is to pray that our faith will sustain us in times of sorrow. Therefore it is important to remember to ask God during our "good times" to help us overcome the sorrow and heartaches that will inevitably come.

Phillips Brooks, a preacher and noted hymnist, made a great observation concerning just this thought. He said, "Some day, in years to come, you will be wrestling with the great temptation, or trembling under the great sorrow of your life. But the real struggle is here, now, in these quiet weeks. Now it is being decided whether, in the day of your supreme sorrow or temptation, you shall miserably fail or gloriously conquer. Character cannot be made except by a steady, long continued process." - Phillips Brooks

"[A] steady, long continued process." For Christians, that means practicing our religion every moment of our lives. Preparing during the "quite times" to "gloriously conquer" during the sorrow filled days.

GIRLS DAY

Woodson Chapel (Nashville) will be hosting a Girl's

The bus will escort you to this event with a complimentary shopping spree afterwards.

HOME DEVOTIONAL

The next scheduled Home Devo will be hosted by the Hiltons this Sunday, August 27th, following our evening worship. Bran Van Merritt will be the speaker. Boys bring a 2-liter and girls bring a dessert. For directions a map is on the bulletin board.

BIRTHDAY WEDNESDAY

All the youth (meaning all ages) are invited to help celebrate the birthdays of our August students on Wednesday, August 30th. If you have a child with an August birthday and can bring food or drink, please see the list on the bulletin board.

L.D.Y.M. IX

The 9th Annual Labor Day Youth Madness "Countdown to Midnite!" will take place Sunday, September 3rd. A sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board and it is vital that everyone including your guests is on the list. Devotionals, games, food, drinks, and bowling are all in store. The cost is $10.00, which includes food and bowling.

17th Annual Bible Lectures

Those of you who were unable to attend the 17th Annual Bible Lectures really missed a great spiritual feast! There were some powerful lessons delivered by some great preachers (some older and some young). If you wish, you may listen to all the lessons on the church's website: www.bybeebranch.org/lectureship.html. Or, if you wish, all the lessons are available on 4 CDs or 1 DVD. If you want these, please sign one of the forms on the table in the foyer and turn it in to the office.
