I've Approved This Message

How many times have you heard this during this campaign season? Won't you be glad when the national election has passed? Regarding that phrase it is heard at the end of almost every campaign commercial. I wonder if God could say that about us?

Obviously, preachers and teachers need to present a message that would be approved by God. However, it does not stop there. Isn't the life of every Christian a message that is being presented to a lost and dying world? After all, Christians are to shine as lights in the world, (Matthew 5:14-16; Philippians 2:15).

Live so that God could look at the sermon you are preaching by your life and say, "I'VE APPROVED THIS MESSAGE."

From Tyler's Desk:

That's Amazing!

When Jesus was only 12 years old, when Jesus was in the temple, the teachers were "amazed at his understanding and answers (Luke 2:47). While Jesus was teaching in the Capernaum synagogue, he healed a man of his unclean spirit, "and they were all amazed" (Mark 1:27). Shortly thereafter, the people of Capernaum were again amazed when Jesus healed a paralytic, and boldly proclaimed the forgiveness of the man's sins (Mark 2:12). Jairus and his wife were clearly amazed when Jesus brought their daughter back from the dead (Luke 8:56). When Jesus healed a demon-oppressed man who was blind and mute, all the people were amazed, and began to question "Is this the son of David?" (Matthew 12:23). Even Jesus' closest disciples were amazed at his teachings (Mark 10:24).

Jesus was clearly an amazing man. He taught amazing things, and did amazing miracles to prove his authority. However, Jesus' amazing life, ultimately led to the most amazing thing of all: his death.

In Mark 11:18 we read "And the chief priests and the scribes heard it and were seeking a way to destroy him, for they feared him, because all the crowd was astonished at his teaching." The chief priests and the scribes were the religious authorities during the time of Christ. They had money, they had power, and they had influence over the crowds, well, that is until Jesus came along. After violently overturning the tables of the money changes at the temple, and denying that they had the power to treat God's house however they wished, the chief priests and scribes started to see their power disappear. They feared, for they saw their influence over the crowds vanishing before their very eyes. They realized that if Jesus had his way, they would no longer be able to be the ultimate authorities when it came to God's word. When Jesus pointed out that God's teachings about his temple were more authoritative than their own desires, they reacted by plotting to kill Jesus.

When we sin, we, like the chief priest and scribes, choose our own desires above submitting to God's authoritative word. Jesus died because of our sins (1 Corinthians 15:3), therefore when we choose to sin, we, like the chief priests and scribes, are plotting Jesus' death.

When Jesus was facing his horrible death, and Pilate gave Jesus an opportunity to defend himself against his accusers, Jesus remained silent "so that Pilate was amazed" (Mark 15:5). He was willingly crucified for us. However, the story doesn't end there.

Three days later, Jesus' apostles were once again amazed, when the women who went to Jesus' tomb came and testified to them that Jesus had risen from the dead (Luke 24:23-24).

We refused to accept God's amazing authority and sinned, we put God's amazing Son on the cross. However, if we are baptized into his death, then "just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life" (Romans 6:4).

Now isn't that amazing?
