Miracles in Mark: Jesus is the Light

The gospel accounts of Jesus' life are full of many marvelous miracles. One miracle which Jesus often performed was giving sight to the blind.

In Mark 10:52, Jesus gave sight to Bartimaeus by commanding him to "Go your way; your faith has made you well."

In Matthew 9:28-29, Jesus healed two blind men by touching their eyes and telling them "according to your faith be it done to you."

We also read of Jesus healing many people, including the blind, as they were put at His feet. (Matthew 15:30-31)

In John 9:6-7, Jesus healed a blind man by spitting in some dirt to make mud, and spreading the mud on the man's eyes. When the man rinsed the mud off his eyes, he could see again.

One of the most unique accounts of Jesus healing the blind is found in Mark 8:23-25. In this situation, Jesus spit on the man's eyes, and then laid his hands on him. However, when this happened, the man only partly regained his sight. Jesus repeated the same action a second time, which resulted in the man completely recovering his sight.

Why did Jesus heal in so many different ways? Why on one occasion did Jesus heal in stages? The text never says.

But one thing is evident. The variety of healing methods proves that Jesus' healing powers were not found in the method in which he healed. The power to heal must have come from some other source.

In speaking of the Messiah, Isaiah 42:6-7 reads, "I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness... I will give you as a covenant for the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes that are blind..."

Jesus often healed the blind, thus proving that he was the Messiah. He is a light to the nations. Without the light Jesus provides, we would all be blind. We must let Jesus' light remove the darkness in our lives, thus healing our blindness.

Elders-Deacons Meeting

General Business Meeting

The quarterly men's General Business Meeting will be held this Sunday evening following services. All the Christian men of the congregation are encouraged to attend.

Sentence Sermons

Men don't reject the Bible because it contradicts itself, but because it contradicts them.

If a sermon pricks your conscience, it has some good points.
