How Much Do You Own In That Direction?

George Washington Truett was a preacher in Dallas for 47 years. He once visited a wealthy West Texas rancher and had dinner in his huge ranch home. After dinner, the rancher took Dr. Truett up to a veranda on top of his house, and lit up a big cigar. The sun was setting, and if you've ever been to West Texas, you know you can see a long way out there. The man pointed to the south toward some oil rigs and said, "I own everything in that direction as far as you can see." He pointed east toward some cotton fields and said, "And I own everything in that direction, too." He pointed north toward a huge herd of cattle and bragged, "And preacher, I own everything as far as you can see in that direction." He turned to the west, and said, "And I own everything you can see in that direction, except the sun, of course."

Dr. Truett turned to the man and pointed straight up in the sky and said, "And how much do you own in that direction?"

It's a sobering question for all of us. We are surrounded constantly by the "things" of this world, and it is so easy to think that these "things" are the things that matter most—a nice car, a nice home, nice clothes (and don't forget all the necessary electronic gadgets!). And so, if we're not careful, we may seek to accumulate more and more, without regard to our relationship with God. As the rich fool discovered in Luke 12, we will all one day be forced to recognize that the material things we have accumulated have no eternal value.

Jesus said, "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:19-21).

How much do you own in that direction?

From Tyler's Desk:

A Good Man

How do you want to be remembered after your life is over? If you were forever to be remembered by just one word, what word would others use to describe your life?

In Acts 11:24, Barnabas was described as being a "good man". And a good man he was. In fact, "Barnabas" was not even his real name. He was a man named Joseph, but his good character earned him the nickname "Barnabas", which means "son of encouragement" (Acts 4:36).

Barnabas earned his good reputation because of his generosity. The first time we read of Barnabas is in Acts chapter 4. Verse 37 tells of a time when Barnabas "sold a field that belonged to him and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet." Barnabas understood that relatively speaking, possessions were of little value in comparison to the importance of the church.

Barnabas earned his good reputation by courageously doing the right thing, even when others would not. The next time we see Barnabas is shortly after Saul's conversion. In Acts 9:37, we read that when Saul attempted to join the disciples, "they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and declared to them how on the road he had seen the Lord." The beginning of Paul's great service to God began with the encouragement of the good man, Barnabas.

Barnabas earned his good reputation by encouraging young Christians. The church at Antioch was the first church made up of primarily Gentiles.

When the church in Jerusalem heard of the new congregation in Antioch, they sent Barnabas to them. In Acts 11:23 we read, "When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose, for he was a good man."

Barnabas earned his good reputation by devoting his life to the service of God. Barnabas continued to serve with Paul through his first missionary journey, and continued with John Mark on a missionary journey to Cyprus. Barnabas earned his "good" reputation every day of his life.

Will you be remembered as a "good" person? What are you doing to earn that reputation? Do you give generously? Do you stand up for what's right? Do you encourage the Christians around you? Or has Satan convinced you to live otherwise? If so, he may cause you to forfeit your "good" reputation.

How To Observe Thanksgiving

Count your blessings instead of your crosses;
Count your gains instead of your losses.

Count your joys instead of your woes;
Count your friend instead of your foes.

Count your smiles instead of your tears;
Count your courage instead of your fears.

Count your kind deeds instead of your mean.
Count your full years instead of your lean;

Count your health instead of your wealth.
Count on God instead of yourself.

"4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. 5 For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations."
