Shield of Faith

“In all circumstances take up the shield of faith” – Ephesians 6:16

Paul, the writer of Ephesians teaches that faith, like a shield, provides protection. But for just a second, think about the protection Paul's faith provided him.

In 2 Corinthians 11 we learn that Paul suffered beatings at the hand of the Jews. Where was Paul's shield of faith?

Paul was once stoned. Why did Paul's faith not protect him?

Paul was shipwrecked, suffered toil and hardship, he was often without food, and suffered exposed in the cold. On top of all this, Paul was under a constant pressure to help the churches. Where was Paul's shield of faith? Why did his faith not provide him protection?

Or perhaps, Paul's faith did protect him. Notice that when Paul wrote about the shield of faith, he teaches that we should take it up in “all circumstances”. A shield does not protect a soldier from having to go into battle. A shield protects a soldier when he is in the thick of the battle.

Our faith does not protect us from the hardships in life. It provides the hope and endurance we need to keep going in those hardships.

May we always take up our shield of faith, so that having faced all of life's hardships, we may still be able to say the following words with Paul: “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.” (2 Timothy 4:7)

Football Christianity

Quarterback Sneak: Church members quietly leaving the auditorium before the end of the service.

Draw Play: What many children do with the bulletin or visitor cards during worship.

Draft Choice: Selection of the seats closest to the back.

Half-Time: The time between Bible class and the worship service.

Bench Warmers: Those who do not sing, pray, work, or apparently do anything but sit.

Backfield In Motion: Making two or three trips out during a 30-minute sermon.

Fumble: Dropping a book, singing the wrong verse, or standing while others are still seated.

Staying in the Pocket: What happens to a lot of money that should be given to the Lord's work.

Two-minute Warning: When the preacher begins to give the invitation, giving everyone time to gather coats, children and belongings.

Sudden Death: What happens to the attention span of the congregation if the preacher goes “overtime.”

Blitz: The rush for the restaurants following the closing prayer.

End Run: Getting out of the building quick, without speaking to any guest or fellow member.

Flex Defense: The ability to not allow the sermon to change your life in any way.

Half-Back Option: The decision of 50% of the congregation not to return for the evening service.

The above little bulletin clip has been around for a long time and has been edited and adapted into many different forms. However, there is a lot of truth in it. Remember worship is an important devotion to God, we should treat it as such. T.L.
