"He that Swaereth to His Own Hurt"

"LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill? ... He that swaereth to his own hurt, and changeth not." (Psalm 15:1, 4)

In the year 2000 I lost my job at EDS and began searching for employment. I picked up some part time work in the interim. While I was committed to a project, I got a call from the Compaq Corporation. I scheduled the interview and met with a manager.

The job they wanted me to do was a "dream job" in the computer industry. I would be technical support for the outside sales department. I would get a company car, have access to a large computer lab facility, be able to take clients out for lunches on a regular basis at the company's expense, and all the perks.

At the end of the interview, the manager looked at me and said, "I would like to hire you. When can you start?"

I replied, "I have a previous commitment with another company to do a temporary project and in two weeks after that project is done, I can start." He said that he appreciated my honesty and character; we parted company and he never called back.

We live in a society that by and large values compromise above principle, subjectivity over objectivity, and relatives over absolutes. It would be an understatement to say that it is easy to get away with not keeping one's promises in our society.

"Things happen."

The weather changes. We don't feel good. Other people don't follow through. There are any number of reasons that we could enumerate and by and large most would accept our excuse.

In contrast to our society, God's people, God's society, are called to a higher standard. It is a standard that transcends the bounds of society, time, and culture. It is a standard based upon the eternal character of God. It is a standard upon which God expects us to live (Romans 12:1-2).

Our God is a God who always keeps his promises (Hebrews 6:17-18, Titus 1:2). If we desire to dwell in His holy hill, His tabernacle, His church today, we must practice His standard of righteousness. When we are willing to suffer to keep our promises, God says that is when we are most like Him.

May we, as God's people, resolve to keep our word and dwell in unity with our God.

Miracles in Mark: Lessons We Learned

Over the last several months, I have enjoyed studying the miracles of Jesus as described in the book of Mark. As I studied these miracles, I noticed several gleanings from the text which have taught me several valuable lessons. Below is a review of each of the miracles which I studied in the book of Mark, and some lessons from each miracle.

1:21-27 – Jesus healed a man in the synagogue, thus showing He had authority from God.

1:29-31 – Peter's mother-in-law responded to being healed by serving Jesus. We should do the same.

1:40-45 – Jesus touched an unclean leper, showing the compassion he has for even the most unclean people.

2:1-5 – A paralytic was healed because Jesus saw his faith. Our faith must be visible to others in the way we act.

3:1-5 – Jesus healed a man with a withered hand. Jesus became angry when men rejected this obvious sign of authority. This shows Jesus gets angry when we reject him!

4:35-41 – Jesus calmed a fierce storm. Jesus has the ability to calm even the worst of the storms we may face in our lives.

5:1-20 – Jesus healed a man who was possessed with a demon. Those who saw him were afraid of his power. Jesus has great power, but we should welcome his healing rather than fearing the changes we must make to follow Him

5:24-34 – A woman touched Jesus and was healed. We must touch his sacrifice through baptism and faithfulness to be healed.

5:34-43 – Jesus brought a child back from the dead. It is never too late for Jesus to bring us back.

6:30-44 – We should use the resources we have to care for the needy, just as Jesus fed the five thousand.

6:45-52 – The apostles were afraid when they saw Jesus walking on the water. They had failed to learn their lesson about Jesus' great power. We must learn from our past!

7:24-30 – Jesus healed a Gentile woman. Even when this woman was discouraged, she still refused to turn from Christ.

7:31-37 – We see an example of Jesus' emotions behind his miracles. Jesus does not just save us mechanically; he feels emotion and compassion for our condition!

8:1-10 – Jesus healed four thousand people. The disciples were amazed, because their hearts had been hardened. Is your heart hardened to accepting Jesus' power?

10:46-52 – Do you feel like you can't find your way in life? Jesus showed us that he can give sight to the blind!

11:12-14 – Jesus destroyed a fig tree because it failed to bear fruit. Jesus has the power to judge the unfruitful.

Some of these lessons may mean more to you right now than others. But one miracle of Jesus stands far above all the rest. The miracle which should have the greatest impact on each of us is that of the resurrection. Next week we will look at Mark's account of this miracle, and the importance of that miracle to our lives.
