A young boy sat in Bible school one Lord's Day morning. He listened as his teacher talked of the importance of the Kingdom of God. "It must come first," the teacher said. The lad was greatly impressed because the teacher seemed so sincere. That night the young boy came back to the evening service. He looked and looked for his teacher who had taught him to put the Kingdom of God first. But the teacher wasn't there--she was home watching TV. The lad never came back to Bible School. The teacher very often wondered why he quit. Do you?

TEENAGERS ENJOY A GREAT EVENING OF FUN

Our young people along with the high school group at Smartt Station Church of Christ enjoyed a great night of fun last Sunday evening following worship services. A large number of people gathered at the Davis' residence on the Old Daylight Road and refreshments and good company make for good Christian recreation.

The young people are to be commended for their interest in getting to know and be with others of like faith.

REMEMBER THE FELLOWSHIP MEAL

Let's all get together this Thursday night at the building and eat with each other. We all should enjoy the company of others in the church, and we are going to eat anyway--so why not join the others? We will eat at 6:30. Plan to come and enjoy the evening with saints in Christ. The food isn't half of it--its the fellowship that we enjoy most.

Hebrews 13:1--2
"Let brotherly love continue.
"Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares."

DID YOU READ THE BIBLE?

After the day is finished, after the year is over, and finally when all of our live is over one of the most significant questions before all men is "Did you read the Bible?" You can begin now and read the Bible completely through every year of your life by reading three chapters every day and five chapters on Sunday. Think of the many advantages of this plan:

1. You will read the Word of God through from cover to cover not once, but many times.
2. Repetition is a factor in learning.
3. You will be reading portions of the Bible that you might otherwise overlook or never get to.
4. You will be a daily Bible reader, like those we read about in Acts 17:11.
5. Your faith will grow, according to Romans 10:17.
6. You will build spiritual confidence.

Several years brother E. Claude Gardner of Freed--Hardeman College encouraged all the students to begin this plan of daily Bible reading. It has been good for this writer since that time and now at this writing I have read the Bible through a number of times already. It is a pleasure and joy to pass this Bible reading suggestion on to you in the hope that it will bless your life as it has mine.

ARE W. SILENT WHERE THE BIBLE IS SILENT?

For years a good motto for us as Christians has been, "We speak where the Bible speaks and remain silent where the Bible is silent." But it is still a good motto and expresses the Will of God regarding men in this world. It is sinful to legislate for God or to subtract from His written Word (Deut 4:2, Prov. 30:6, Rev. 22:18--19). We must not think of men that which is written, I Cor. 4:6.

But someone asks this question, "So shew me Bible example or Bible teaching for Bible study or Wednesday services. Isn't the Bible silent on these services?" In the matters of expedience where God has not spoken elders may acknowledge that freedom that God allows.

Jesus charged "Go teach," and "Go preach". He specifically told WHAT was to be preached and taught. But He did not specify when or how. Timothy was told specifically to sutdy (2 Tim 2:15) but he is not told when or how. By applying these principles I am free to preach and teach through the printed page, and readers are free to study in their homes any day of the week, or in any house where the church may assemble on any day of the week. There is nothing hallowed about a church building that we have not ourselves hallowed. "And daily in the temple and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ" (Acts 2:42).

Yes it is true that children are to be taught by the parents in the home (Eph. 6:4). The church is not primarily responsible for that instruction, the home is. But saints are charged to teach and preach everywhere, and they have an example in the passage cited above. It is increasingly apparent that those who contend the saints cannot teach the Bible in the church building are not doing it in the bungalo!

THE NAILS OF THE CROSS

John's Gospel (20:25) tells us that Christ had the "print of the nails" in his hands. Matthew tells us that the mob on the hill of Calvary challenged Christ to "come down from the cross." (27:40).

Several thoughts come to mind about these facts. Why didn't our Lord come down? Note the following:

1. It was not the nails that held him on the cross.

   Jesus our Lord and King had the power to remove the nails. He could have called "more than twelve legions of angels" to help him and remove him from the cross (Matt. 26:53). He who had the power to still the storm, feed the multitude, and raise the dead could have removed the nails.
   The crowd could not have killed Christ if he had not wished to do his father's will.
   "Therefore doth the father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it up again. No man taketh it away from me, but I lay it down of myself." (John 10:17--18).

2. The Father's will and wish held him to the cross.
   Matthew 26:39 relates "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt."
   It was the Father's will for this to be the propitiation for our sins (I John 2:2).

3. God's eternal purpose held Christ to the cross.
   Acts 20:38, Christ's Church makes known this purpose.
   Ephesians 3:10 it is clear and manifest.

4. The joy set before Christ held him to the cross.
   Hebrews 12:2. Neither the lack of power or the nails held Jesus to the cross. His resignation to the will of God bound him to that suffering.

MUST AN ELDER DESIRE THE OFFICE?

Paul wrote, "This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work." (I Tim. 3:1). For a man to effectively serve an elder, a shepherd of God's flock, he must be willing to serve. Peter writes of this in I Peter 5: "The elders which are among you I exhort. . . Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly." An unwilling shepherd could hardly tend God's flock as He wants it done!

To "desire the office" doesn't mean "running for office" like a politician, though. A good man may be qualified to be a bishop in the church and still be reluctant to serve. Reluctance may stem from other things than shirking responsibility. If one is truly humble (as elders must be, I Peter 5:5), he may feel unworthy for the work. If he counts "others better than himself" (Phil. 2:3), he may feel there are others better qualified. Serving as an elder is a grave responsibility, and any man before accepting that work (Luke 14:28). But when a man has the ability meets the qualifications, and is asked to serve, he should do it. And many men "desire the office," not for its prestige, but because of the need for the work which they can do. And while counting the cost, one should also count the cost of "burying his talent."

YOUR INFLUENCE

Our influence is the most valuable thing we have in reaching others for Jesus Christ our Lord. Losing it can cost us greatly. Former President Nixon, at his best, is a most effective political speaker. But with his influence gone, who will listen? Wilbur Mills was the most powerful man in congress two months ago, but with his influence gone, his colleagues took his power away.

G. O. Fruzia, tells the following:

> A man told me the other day that a fellow-employee approached him to put a quarter on this week's football game.
> He declined to do so. "It's only a quarter, so come on," he was told. He said that he didn't have a quarter right then.
> Well, I'll put your name down and you can give me a quarter later," came the reply. "No" the man replies, "I don't gamble."
> Imagine the man's surprise when his fellow-employee answered "I knew that. I just wanted to see if you would."
> He withstood temptation. It was a little matter--or was it? His entire influence as a Christian was on the line, although he hadn't realized it.

This story illustrates what our Lord was saying:

> "Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be casst out, and to be trodden under foot of men."
> --Matthew 5:13

THANK--YOU

I wish to express my appreciate to everyone who thought of me in my recent accident. The prayers, visits, cards, and calls all showed real concern and such is so meaningful at all times. I want to thank brother McInnery and brother Kenneth Woods for teaching in my absence. The members of the Bybee Branch congregation are truly to be commended for following the will of our Lord expressed in many passages of scripture, among these especially is Galatians 6:2 and 10.

--Richard Dale

THANK--YOU

I want to thank everyone for the prayers, visits, cards and phone calls during my sickness.

IF I SHOULD DIE

"If I should die before I wake," prayed young Tommy. If I should die before I wake--if I should die. . ."

"Go on, Tommy" urged his mother, "you know the rest of the prayer."

"I'll be right back," blurted the youngster. Scrambling to his feet, he ran into the next room. Soon he was back. Dropping to his knees, he rattled off the familiar bedtime prayer without a bobble.

Tucking little Tommy in bed, his mother issued a gentle rebuke for the interruption, insisting that he should think about what he was saying when he prayed.

"Mom, I was thinking about what I was saying", sai d the boy defensively. "That's why I had to stop. You see, I stood all of Ted's wooden soldiers on their heads just to see how mad he'd be in the morning. If I should die before I wake, I wouldn't want him to find them that way, so I had to go and fix them right away."

"You're right dear", said a proud mother, voice quivering. She thought of herself, and many other adults who should stop in the middle of their prayers and undo some wrong against another.

There are lots of things that may seem fun if you're going to keep on living. But do you want them that way at the end of life's "few days"?

Is everything all right. . . if you should die before you wake?

--Joe R. Barnett

WHAT YOU MISS

Whether it is true or not, the story is told that during the Presidency of Herbert Hoover, both the President and Mrs. Hoover made a trip through Pennsylvania and stopped for worship one Sunday morning unannounced. Neither the minister nor the congregation expected to have such guests that morning for worship. It was a complete surprise to them all.

Many of the members of that church were not present however. They were out for a drive to enjoy the beauty of the day and did not give even a passing thought to the importanct of the assembly on the Lord's day. Only 13 people were present for worship when the President and his party came in.

When the people of the community heard the news, they said, "If we had known that the president would be there we would have gone to church." This is so typical of those that do not realize the importance of the assembly upon the first day of the week. Christians that miss the assembling of themselves together miss more than a president--they miss the King of the Kings.

Matthew 18:20

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

IF A MAN WHOULD BE A CHRISTIAN

If a man would be a soldier, he'd expect of course to fight;
And he couldn't be an author if he didn't try to write.
So it isn't common logic, doesn't have the right true ring
That a man to be a Christian doesn't have to do a thing.

If a man would be a hunter, he must go among the trees;
And he couldn't be a sailor, if he didn't sail the seas.
How strange for any person to think perhaps that he
Can fail in work and worship, and a faithful Christian be!

WHAT CAN I DO TO HELP IN THE GOSPEL MEETING?

1. You can pray for brother Sanders and the meeting daily.

2. You can invite all those you see from day to day and then remind them as time draws nearer.

3. You might be interested in helping in one of the four committees that were organized last Sunday night in the short meeting following services:

   a. Attendance roster. Serve one night only of the meeting checking the attendance boards. Nead at least twenty people to help in this.
   b. Lost sheep. Help to enroll those that are restored or baptized into Christ. Chek on others not now attending that we know should.
   c. Teenagers. If you are a teenager, help encourage other teens to attend the meeting.
   d. Home Bible Studies. Richard and Evelyn Dale are in charge of this area of arranging studies for the ones who want them.

* * * * * * * * * * * *

WOULD YOU LIKE TO TYPE? Several things are coming up in the near future that will require about two or three hours a week of typing. Letters for the meeting and things for the Vacation Bible School. If you would like to help with this office typing, see brother Dale.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The family of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Lowry request the h[illegible] of your presence at the 50th Wedding Anniversary, which will be held at the Bybee Branch Fellowship Room from 2:00 - 4:00 on March 30th.

OUR THANKS

We appreciate the work of brother Hennessee in printing our advertisements for the Gospel Meeting. Take these and advertise the meeting to your friends.

OUR SICK

Brother Claude Jones is ill at home.
Sister Belle Mullican remains confined at home.
Sister Emma Cantrell is home and slowly improving.
Sister Mary Chandler is in Warren County Hospital, Room 262. She is listed in satisfactory condition.
Sister Eula Foster was out of services Sunday evening.

Several families have been away during these winter months. It is good to have the Lowry's back with us again; brother and sister Fate Cantrell are in Florida but should be home this week. Barnes and Eula Baker are in Arizona. We pray these and others will have a safe trip and return soon.

THANK--YOU CARDS RECEIVED

It will not be possible to print all the words of thanks received from the various cards themselves, but you can read them on the bulletin board. Cards have been received from:

The family of Octa Walker; Ruth Stubblefield; Jim Mullican; Patty Blair Jones; Mrs. J.A. Reeder; and Judy Mitchell.

HOUSE FILLED WITH WISDOM

A merchant wanted to determine which of his two sons was the more worthy of inheriting his property. He gave each a coin and said: "Buy something with this money which will fill this house."

The elder son hurried to the market, where he learned that the cheapest and bulkiest thing he could buy was straw. He spent his coin for that, but had not enough even to cover the floor.

The younger son, perceiving that his father had entrusted him with a commission which could be executed only by unusual shrewdness, deliberated and finally spent his coin for candles. These he took home and lighted, one in each room, so that the light they gave filled the house.

"To you," said the happy father, "I give my property. You have shown true widsom."

SIN ON THE RISE

The U.S. News and World Report for April 7, 1975 gives the following rises in crime: "Larceny up 20%, burglary up 17%, robbery up 14%, forcible rape up 9%, aggravated assault up 9%, murder up 5%, and auto theft up 4%." The article goes on to say, ". . . if you ask a young person today whether he knows it is a sin to kill somebody, he is likely to ask you, WHAT IS SIN? Boys and girls don't go to church anymore and more and more of them are living in borken homes."

Sin is on the rise because people are not aware of what it is and its consequences (I John 3:4, Romans 6:23).

What will the atheists, women libers, and other groups do or say to stop the awful crime rate? They scoff at the Bible and Bible principles that contradict their philosophies. They laugh, mock, and make fun when a person uses the Bible saying we ought to do thus and so.

Solomon wrote by God's inspiration, "Righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people." (Prov. 14:34).

Come to Bible class--study together as a family. Don't send the children, bring them!

ISAIAH'S WARNING

Isaiah warned, "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter." (Isaiah 5:20). Men are prone to commend as good that which God has condemned and to condemn that which the Lord has said is good. Tody men attempt to justify and make night what the Lord has condemned in his word.

God has not changed His mind regarding homosexuality, dishonesty, adultery, or unfaithfulness in any form. There is never a right way to do a wrong thing. We need to study diligently the Bible to be even on guard to recongnize what God has said and to abide true to His truth.

Read the Bible every day. Attend every service and be involved in a Bible class to grow in Christ.

AN ERROR OF THE PREMILLENNIAL THEORY EXPOSED

Mr. Lindsey in his book, The Late Great Planet Earth, tells us that Jesus will return to the earth to rule in Jerusalem. The Bible denies completely this error.

Jeremiah said of Coniah, "Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days; for no more shall a man of his seed prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling in Judah." (Jeremiah 22:30)

The passage tells us very clearly that there will never be another of the line of David ruling on an earthly throne in Judah. We know from Acts 2, Jesus is ruling in heaven not on earth. Luke 1:32 speaks of the rule Jesus would experience over God's people; (calling it the throne of David) but this rule is not to be exercised while sitting on an earthly throne.

Coniah is the same person as Jeconiah. The name Coniah is a contraction of the name Jeconiah. This man (Jeconiah) is listed in the genalogy of Jesus in Matthew 1: 11-12. Jeremiah in the above passage denies for all times that Jesus will ever sit on an earthly throne in the land of Judah.

Not only does the Premillennial theory misapply and misinterpret the Bible, it contradicts it in this passage from the prophet Jeremiah and in many other passages.

FAMILY RESPECT

In the United States there has never been a Chinese conviction for rape, burglary, bank robbery, or desertion.

In the half-century of Chinese Chicago (Chinatown), there has been only one arrest for breaking and entering.

Despite the generations of western influence, this race has somehow neckreined the impulses of its vigorous youngsters. Why?

Albert K Leong, president of the Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association of Chicago says, "We keep a tight rein on our children until they are truly responsible."

Editor Thomas Y. Fu of the "China Times" in Chicago says, "Our children just naturally respect and obey their parents. A boy or girl would not bring shame on his family or on his family name."

However circuitous the line of questioning (in a research I made) became, it always seemed to lead back to a simple formula so logical, so impertinently simple, "Our children are always at home at mealtime."

Most Chinese-Americans, no matter how wealthy or poor, maintain a strict family styled home. Meal times are ceremonious affairs which must be attended by every member of the family.

Could such a simple home remedy as this help explain why not one of New York's 10,000 Chinese-American school-agers has ever been brought to court for narcotics, speeding, burglary, vandalism, stick-ups, purse snatching or mugging? Not even speeding!

Apparently this commendable and enviable record has been achieved by family togetherness at mealtime and by perpetuating family oneness.

"THE PARABLE OF THE WINGED DUCK"

"Behold, a hunter went one day to hunt a duck. He had expensive equipment and a good guide. His aim was to kill a duck. About the break of day, lo and behold, a group of ducks came flying over. The hunter took aim and fired. He killed one duck and winged another, yet he shot at the whole group. He knew he only winged one because he heard him squawking. Had it not been winged, it would not have squawked."

Behold, also a preacher went one day into the pulpit to preach. About 10:30 A.M., lo and behold, a group came to church. The preacher took his text and delivered the shot. He killed the old man of sin in one person because he repented, but he only winged some others. He knew he had only winged some because he heard them squawking. Had they not been winged, they would not have squawked.

"BEHOLD, A WINGED DUCK WILL SQUAWK!"

OPPORTUNITY

A beautiful legend represents Opportunity as a maiden standing by the side of a large cornfield in early morning. A good genius appears to her and says:"Your journey across this field is one day. As you pass through, pluck one ear of corn. According to the size of the ear you gather, you shall have talismanic or supernatural powers. you must gather the ear of corn as you pass. You must not retrace a single step, and must pluck but one ear, gathering it as you pass." The good genius bids the maid adieu and disappears.

With eager steps the maiden starts through the field. The ears of corn hang large and thick all around her, so inviting. She hesitates to gather one now, so anxious to have the largest. She passes on all alert for the big, long ear of corn. But she soon notices that the stalks of corn are thinner and the ears smaller. She hastens on only to see the stalks growing fewer and the ears still smaller. She disdains now to gather one of the little insignificant ears that she might see--evening comes. She has crossed the field. Not a single ear of oorn has been gathered.

Life is a brief day's journey. Youth has many and wonderful opportunities. They grow fewer and less useful as we pass. "As we have opportunity," let us grasp them.

FROZEN CHRISTIAN

The Minister's Monthly recounted the story of a shipwreck off the Rhode Island coast one winter. A father and son managed to get into a boat together. The father took the oars and refusing to allow the boy to help row, the battle to reach the shore began. Finally they touched land, but when the father attempted to help the boy out, he found him frozen to death. Had the son been allowed to help with the oars, the activity would have saved his life.

There is a lesson in this for all Christians. The leadership of the church must recognize the life-sustaining qualities of involvement for all. Although one is young in the faith or possesses only one or two talents, rather than five, there is work for him to do. Wishing to spare some of the heaviness of a task may actually freeze them to death spiritually. For every Christian who has been worked to death, there must be hundreds who have frozen from inactivity.

All Christians must realize their responsibility to take an active part. It is not the job of the leadership either to do all the work, to hire it done, or to "nag" each Christian to participate. The Lord's work needs "self-starters" and volunteers. The spiritual life we save may be our own. --Selected

"ADMIRING CHILDHOOD"

"I stood over my sleeping son last night. For a moment I was lost in admiration of his commendable points. I thought how much more my child--my children--all children have than adults. Some qualities which come so naturally to children make adults envious.

I had been watching my youngsters get ready for bed. No left-over worries from the day's activity kept them awake. No fear of tomorrow troubled their minds. No decision or issue of this life could retard those sleepy eyelids. No consciences indicated them for wrongs done or tasks left undone.

And I thought of other qualities of childhood. They do not retain bitterness. They are willing to forgive. They have not yet learned to hate, to bear grudges, to distrust, to carry seething malice. Children live each day by itself. They do not put stock in memory nor do they put off happiness. And, oh, what joy and vibrancy and thrill and eagerness they experience!

As I liiked at our children asleep, I thought how some night years from now they will stand over their own children and perhaps for the first time recognize qualities in children which make adults stand in awe and envy." Matthew 18: 1-6.

"PROVIDENTIALLY HINDERED"

One of the definitions of PROVIDENCE is "Divine guidance or care; also an act or instance of it." A second definition is: "an intervention of Providence (God).

No doubt this is one of the most misused words in the English language - among church members. Listed below are a few excuses offered by some when they don't attend the services:

1. "We had relatives to drop in on us just about church time."

2. "Both of us work and it is the only day we have together to rest."

3. "We planned the trip and were unable to find a congregation where we could meet and worship."

4. "Our youngest child sneezed twice at the breakfast table and we remained home as we didn't want to expose the other children in his Bible Class." Oh, yes, we sent him to school Monday morning--why did you ask?

Brethren, the "intervention" which keeps you from faithful attendance may be coming from another source.

MAN DESCENDED FROM APE?????

Three monkeys sat on a coconut tree
Discussing things as they're said to be.
Said one to the other, now listen you two,
There is a certain rumor that can't be true.

That man descended from our noble race
The very idea is a disgrace.
No monkey ever deserted his wife
Starved her babies and ruined her life.

And you've never known a mother monk
To leave her babies with others to bunk
Or pass them from one to another
Till they hardly know who is their mother.

And another thing you'll never see
A monk build a fence around a coconut tree.
And let the coconuts go to waste
Forbidding other monks to taste.

Why if I build a fence around the tree
Starvation would force you to steal from me.
Here is another thing a monk won't do,
Go out at night and get on a stew.

Or use a gun, or club, or knife
To take another monkey's life.
Yes, man descended the onery cuss,
But brother, he didn't descend from us.

"THE NAME OF THE CHURCH"

"Would to God that all party names and unscriptural phrases and forms which have divided the Christian world were forgot; that we might all agree to sit down together as humble, loving, disciples at the feet of the common Master, to hear his word, to imbibe His spirit, and to transcribe his life into our own."

---John Wesley, Methodist

"But, alas, the enemies have blasphemed the blessed gospel by pasting our sinful names upon it to bring it into disrepute."

---Alexander Campbell,
Christian

"I look forward with pleasure to the day when there will not be a Baptist living. I hope they will soon be gone. I hope the Baptist name will soon perish; but let Christ's name last forever."

---Spurgeon Memorial Library,
Vol. I, p. 168.

"I pray you to leave my name alone, and call not yourselves Lutherans, but Christians. Who is Luther? My doctrine is not mine. I have been crucified for no one. St. Paul (I Cor. 1:18) would not that any should call themselves of Paul nor Peter, but of Christ. How then does it befit me, a miserable bag of dust and ashes; to give my name to the children of Christ? Cease, my dear friends, to cling to these party names and distinctions; away with then all; and let us call ourselves only Christians after Him from whom our doctrine comes."

---Life of Luther
by Stork, p.289.

I'LL TAKE MY STAND ON BUTTERMILK

The late N.B. Hardeman was in the lobby of the Baker Hotel in Dallas, Texas. He was reading the newspaper and a man sitting next to him started a conversation. The man had no idea of brother Hardeman's standing as a gospel preacher, but did ask him a Bible question.

"What is the meaning of 'water' when Jesus says to Nicodemus, 'Except a man be born of water and the Spirit he cannot enter the kingdom of heaven?"

Brother Hardeman got up, looked at the man clearly in the eye and said, "What does water mean? It means buttermilk. This is clear and plain."

The man said, "Well, this is certainly anovel interpretation. I've read many of the commentators and I've never heard this. On what basis do you make this deduction?"

Brother Hardeman replied, "Well, if it says 'water' according to most religious leaders, it couldn't mean what it says and therefore, if it could not be water, it might as well be buttermilk as anything else. And so I'll take my stand of buttermilk."

From the beginning of the Restoration Movement, the plea has been to read and study the Bible as you would any other book. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God (Romans 10:17). Preaching is a proclamation of God's Word and not theopinions and ideas of men. "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mark 16:16).

HE LOVED FIRST PLACE

In Third John 9, John wrote and said, he wrote something to the church; but Diotrephes who loves to be first among them does not accept what we say.

There is a growing trend in the brotherhood, sparked by the so called scholarship of our day; and in order to gain their objectives they belittle the apostles and the Bible and substitute the vagaries and frailties of human opinions and judgments.

Beloved, remember every word in the Bible is from God. That is, God has guarded His book so that there are no errors in it. In this book alone we find the pattern of New Testament christanity. We should test every teaching and every statement religiously made by the word of Almighty God and let no man shake your faith in Jesus Christ by suggesting, "Paul said that" or "Peter wrote that" or "John said that". Unless we can have faith in the men who wrote the New Testament we do not have one word that Jesus spoke, nor do we have any certain knowledge that Jesus lived and died. The truth of the matter is that the God breathed scriptures of the New Testament fulfill all of the God breathed prophecies of the Old Testament concerning the Messiah, the establishment of the Kingdom and the triumph of God.

In this hour when false brethren are trying to destroy our faith in God's word, let us stand firm on the rock and remember that God's word has always been, is now, and shall always be a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our pathway and that every scripture is God breathed and is profitable for doctrine, for reprof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

THE INVITATION SONG

Observing Christian conduct over the years has caused me to ask a question. At the conclusion of virtually every service, we sing this song. Yet, I wonder if it is really an "Invitation song"to some. If appearances accurately reflect attitudes it is not!

To some, the invitation song means the end of another sermon. It marks the close of a service that has been patiently endured in much the same manner as a dental appointment. It is painful, but necessary.

To others, it is a time to stretch cramped muscles, sleepy limbs, and clear numbed brains for the trip home. Sitting for an hour, especially in a church building, does terrible things to the body and mind.

To still others, this song furnishes the opportunity to survey the audience and make goo-goo eyes at the little one who has been amusing them most of the service.

To one or two the invitation song provides a regular bathroom break. The chore is often not taken care of before services and uncomfortable youngsters are not always encouraged to wait until the closing prayer has been completed.

To others, this song is a time to dress. Coats, wraps, shoes...whatever has been shed during the service...must be slipped on during the "invitation song" because at the "Amen" we must rush for the door. A moment for these chores after dismissal would throw their timing out of balance.

And, lest you conclude that I am totally negative, to many the "invitation song" is a sacred moment, a sensitive time at the conclusion of the preaching of God's power, when sinners have the opportunity and the encouragement of Christians to join the fellowship of that spiritual throng when souls may be saved for eternity. They pray silently in behalf of the lost while they sing.....

SHOES

Someone has said, "If the shoe fits, wear it." We sometimes commit: "I'd hate to be in his shoes!" I think every one of us will fit into one of these styles of shoes.

1. LOAFER. "Thou wicked and slothful servant." (Matt.25:27). "Be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises." (Heb.6:12).

2. HIGH HEEL. This fits the haughty, proud individual. A man is "Not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think." (Rom.12:3). God hates a proud look. (Prov. 6:17).

3. OVERSHOE. Puts on Christianity only when the going gets rough. Wants the prayers and visits of the preacher only when sick, etc.

4. HOUSE SHOE. This person wants things easy, comfortable. Is scared off by the buildings program, mission work, etc. Can't get out to worship in bad weather. "Woe to them that are at ease in Zion." (Amos 6:1).

5. SANDAL. Just a skeleton of a Christian; didn't grow into a well-rounded servant. Sandals afford little protection from heat, cold. "When ye ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again." (Heb. 5:12-14)

6. SUNDAY SHOES. Once-a-week Christians. "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow me." (Luke 9:23). As the disciples continued each DA Y, the Lord added to the church DAILY. (Acts 2:46,47). How many congregations are growing DAILY?

7. WORK SHOES. No beauty, but always in style. This is the pair of shoes we put on when there are things to be done. "God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love." "Every man's work (Cont.)

will be made manifest." (ICor. 3:13) When we sing "I want to be a Worker for the Lord," do we mean it? When we pray, "Lord, wear us out in thy service," is our prayer heard?

More games following

Live one day at a time. You can control and conquer any sin if you will learn to live one day at a time. (James 4:13-15).

LOOKING AHEAD

These summer months have been busy ones for us all. With the usual work that must be done at home in our gardens, and then with all the vacations, our schedules in the summer are often irregular. We are looking forward to our plans for the fall. The summer continues to be very much with us and the activities for the youth and for the entire congregation continue to go on as planned. Every month we have a picnic scheduled for the entire congregation. Having already enjoyed two of these, we can all testify to their value. The next picnic will be in August. Every second Sunday evening we have a skating party scheduled for all who enjoy skating. Only members of this congregation and their friends are to use the rink at this time, and those that have attended thus far have enjoyed the fun.

This fall we need to be thinking about a men's leadership program which will help train men to serve publicly in the worship services and eventually to serve as elders and decons. A men's leadership class should begin sometime in middle or last of September. The ladies class will commence again also in October.

Next spring the churches of Christ in Warren County are planning a gospel meeting (combined effort) using the new civic center as a location for the meeting. The elders at Bybee Branch have expressed our willingness to help and work in the meeting and we are praying that much good can be in this area wide effort. George Bailey--a most able speaker--will be engaged to speak during this meeting, and the entire work is under the oversight of the elders of the church.

Pray for all these new programs. Continue to be faithful in study and teaching. "Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord: forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." (I Corinthians 15:58).

VISITORS WELCOME

"IT'S NOT THE CHURCH . . . IT'S YOU!"

If you want to have the kind of a church
Like the kind of a church you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing really new.
It's a knock at yourself when you knock the church---It isn't the church. . . its you.

When everything seems to be going wrong,
And trouble seems everwhere brewing;
When prayer meetings, young people's meeting, and all
Seems simmering slowly--stewing,
Just take a look at yourself and say,
'What's the matter for being blue?'
Are you doing your "bit" to make things "fit"?
It isn't the church---it's you.

It's really strange sometimes,
don't you know,
That things go as well as they do,
When we think of the little-the very small mite-
We add to the work of the few.
We sit around and complain of what's done,
And do very little but fuss.
Are we bearing our share of the burdens to bear?
It isn't the church--- its you.

So, if you want to have the kind of a church,
Like the kind of a church you like,
Put off your guile, and put on your best smile
And hike, mybrother, just hike
To the work in hand that has to be done--
The work of saving a few.
It isn't the church that is wrong, my boy
It isn't the church --- it's you!

PUT ME TO WORK ! ! !

During the month of August check and consider the possible work assignments in the vestibule. Sometime in September these programs will be organized and specific classes and programs set up.

Speak now--or sign up now--and get involved!

THE WORDS OF TRUTH

Every member of the church should be on the mailing list to receive the religious publication WORDS OF TRUTH each week. Several names have been turned in and these new names have been mailed into the office in Alabama. You should be receiving your copy within the next two weeks. Be looking for it.

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING ? ?

The other day I saw a young boy pulling the knobs of a candy vending machine. He had not put any money into the machine, but he was hoping that somehow he was still going to get some candy out of it. In other words, he was trying to get something for nothing. How many of us expect to be happy as Christians and receive the blessings promised to faithful Christians and yet contribute very little, if any at all, to the efforts of the Lord's work?

THANKS to sister Roberta Reynolds for typing the list of books we have available in our church library. You may look over this list placed on the bulletin board or go back into the kitchen area where the books are. Sister Reynolds has organized the books for easy use. Let's all use these books and profit from them as much as we can.

OUR SICK include sister Nora Carter (Riverpark, Room 9B). Others are at home and have been unable to attend the worship services of late: Serti Gribble, Lucille Cantrell, Genira Barrett, Eula Foster and Mertyl Medlen.

SUNDAY NIGHT following the evening services a skating get-together is planned at the skating rink. An admission charge as usual.

FIVE GOSPEL MEETINGS started Sunday and continue throughout this week. See the bulletin board for details: Rock Island, Rockliff, Corinth, Earleyville and Smyrna.

CHURCH PICNIC is the last Friday in the month, August 29th. Remember this get-together and plan to come and enjoy the fellowship, food, and games.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL begins August 11 and continues through August 15th. Children's classes start at 6:30 and the adults class starting at 7:30 P M. There will be a different speaker each night---East End Church of Christ.

THANK YOU to all of the ones that remained last Sunday night to help record a few songs for the radio broadcast. Enough songs were recorded for the entire month. The next scheduled recording session will not be until the first Sunday evening of the next month.

TELL HIM SO . . .

If you hear a kind word spoken
Of someone worthy you know,
It may fill his heart with sunshine
If you only tell him so.

If a deed, however humble
Helps you on your way to go,
Seek out the one whose hand has helped you,
Seek him out and tell him so.

If you heart is touched and tender
Toward a sinner, lost and low,
It might help him to do better
If you'd only tell him so.

Oh my sisters, oh, my brothers,
As o'er life's rough path you go
If God's love has saved and kept you
Do not fail to tell men so.

"DOES THIS SOUND FAMILIAR?"

Word has just been received that a certain preacher has announced he will never again attend a football game. His members have been left speechless by his decision. Sports experts, commenting on the subject said the ministry had evidently absorbed some particular attitude due to his association; with certain types of church people during his many years in the ministry. The preacher's reasons given in the statement were as follows:

1. Everytime I went to a game, somebody asked for money.
2. I was a good faithful fan, but the coach never came to visit me.
3. The seats were too hard.
4. The referees said things I could not agree with.
5. I suspected I was sitting with people who were hypocrites. They seemed more interested in their beverages than in the game.
6. Since I have bought a book on football, I can stay home and read it or watch it on TV. I consider myself as good as the football fans who attend.
7. Satruday afternoon is the only time I have off. A person has to rest, you know.

"T H E Y"

It all depends on how you look at it. The church, it is. You can look at it as "they" or as "we".

Did you ever notice how some people, maybe even ourselves, refer to the church and its activities as "they"? This is usually an unconscious way of divorcing oneself from the responsibilities of the church. So long as it is "thy" instead of "we" I don't feel under obligation since "they" have the obligations.

"They" are expected to do the work. And "they" usually do it while I stand by the side and let them. However, this is handy if I have criticisims to make. "They" also get the criticism. Since I haven't been doing the work my criticisms don't apply to me as if my criticisms were directed to "us"--I can also feel free to sit back and observe how "they" carry on the worship. "They" are the performers while I am only a spectator. Just as in the ball game I have a right to make my complaints about "them" because I "paid" my way to get in.

Let's all get the "we" feeling. After all, If I consider myself a Christian, then I am a part of the body of Christ. As such I will always refer to the church and its work as "we", never "they". When I criticize it will be "us" I am criticising and self-criticism is usually more fair than criticism of other people. Remember--workers seldom complain and complainers seldom work.

THE FIRST PSALM

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful:
"But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
"And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not w-ither; and whatsoever he doeth shall pro-sper;
"The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
"Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
"For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

--Do you know this beautiful Psalm by meart? Many of our little children are able to quote it by memory.

--Consider the valuable lessons from this Psalm. Instead of being like "a tree by the rivers of Water" in this passage many are like the following:

"A lot of Christians are like wheelbarrows--no good unless they are pushed.
Some are like canoes--they need to be paddled.
Some are like kites if you don't keep them on a string, they fly away.
Some are like footballs, you cannot tell which way they will nounce.
Some are like ballons, full of wind and ready to blow up.
Some are like trailers, they have to be pulled along.
Some are like neon lights--they keep going on and off.
And then, for which we thank the Lord some Christians are like gold watches; opened faced, pure gold, quietly busy, and full of good works."

--selected from the Dasher Church bulletin, Valdosta, Georgia

STAY FOR THAT BIBLE CLASS!! Several members of the Lord's church leave after the morning worship services. Stay for the Bible study period. The auditorium class will begin a new study this Sunday--I Corinthians. The young adult class taught by Kenneth Woods would welcome any in their study as well.

DINNER ON THE GROUNDS This Sunday providing the weather is appropriate. Bring your basket meal and eat together at 12:00 noon.

SINGING AT McMINNVILLE Rest Home is scheduled for next week, September 21st. We will meet there at 2:30 and sing for approximately thirty to fourty-five minutes.

THANK YOU for kindnesses shown me during my hospitalization and return home. --Thomas Cantrell

THANK YOU for calls, visits, flowers during my recent illness. --Tamara Franks

WHAT IS THE USE:

What's the use to kick someone, who has had a real hard fall?
If you don't care to help him, don't mention him at all.
You will find, if you take notice, that what I say is true,
While there may be faults in others, there's a flaw or two in you!

AN OPEN LETTER TO MRS. GERALD FORD

Dear Mrs. Ford:

Our morning paper carried a review today of your taped interview, broadcasted on CBS-TV's 60 Minutes, in which you intimated that premarital relations "with the right partner" might lower the divorce rate. It was also reported that you assumed all your children have tried marijuana and that you might have tried it yourself if the drug had been popular when you were young.

The interviewer asked, "What if Susan Ford came to you and said, 'Mother, I'm having an affair?'" You responded "Well, I wouldn't be surprised. I think she's a perfectly normal human being like all young girls, and if she wanted to continue I would certainly counsel her and advise her on the subject, and I'd want to know pretty much about the young man she was planning to have the affair with--whether it was a worthwhile encounter or whether it was going to be one of those....."

The report continued, "Commenting further on her attitude toward premarital love affairs, she said there seems to be 'a complete freedom among the young people now.'"

Mrs. Ford, such comments by the First Lady of the land are inexcusable and reprehensible. You have given the green Light to girls and boys throughout the nation to engage in what you describe, euphemistically, as an affair. The Bible calls such conduct fornication and states emphatically that this sin woll not go unpunished. For some time our nation has been losing ground in the fight for morality and integrity. Your comments may turn the battle for decency into a rout. What a tragedy that would be.

Sincerely
Dan Harless
Wood Ave. Church of Christ

The above letter was taken from the Chestnut Drive Church of Christ Bulletin.

OUR SICK: Marion Jones is improving nicely in Riverpark Hospital, room 28, following a heart attack last week. David Holmes will be in the Donelson Hospital at least two more weeks, and then may come home. Panzy Davis (daughter of Sewell Woodlee) had successful surgery in River Park Hospital this week. Emma Cantrell is doing better following surgery.

NEXT SUNDAY: Being the first Sunday in the month we will stay following the evening service to tape songs for the radio broadcast. Plan to stay and sing with us.

SECOND SUNDAY: Everyone needs to remember that on the second Sunday the skating rink is reserved for us; plan to skate and you may invite a friend.

LADIES BIBLE CLASS: Every Monday morning 9:45 The class meets at this earlier time so that the mothers with children in kindergarten will have time to pick them up at 11:00.

Last Monday the class met for the first time; a good group attended, more are expected this week.

Our class is studying New Testament Churches by Wayman Miller.

IF you were paid &100.00 for each person whom you help to learn and obey the gospel this year, would you try to teach others the gospl or invite them to come and hear the gospel?
The Lord has not promised to pay us in money for the doing of these things, But actually, He has promised to reward us with something far better and more enduring than money. Perhaps putting the matter on the basis of dollars may help us to see and realize that we should, and can well afford, to always be very diligent in striving to do these things.

HARD TO UNDERSTAND

A famous big league umpire has remarked that he could never understand how crowds in the grandstand, hundreds of feet from the plate, could see better and judge more accurately than he can when he is only 6 feet away.

In life too, we call strikes on a person when we are too far away to understand. Sometimes we think we know all the circumatances. But perhaps, if we had a real inside view of the person and his or her problems, we would reverse our decisions.

"Long distance criticism is unfair!"

OUR SICK

James Tramel is in Warren County Gen.

THE CHRISTIAN ATTIDUDE

Just to be tender, just to be true,
Just to be glad the whole day through;
Just to be merciful, just to be mild,
Just to be trusting as a child.
Just to be gentle and kind and sweet,
Just to be helpful with willing feet.
Just to be cheery when things go wrong;
Just to drive sadness away with a song,
Whether the hour is dark or bright,
Just to be loyal to God and right.
Just to believe that God knows best,
Just in His promises ever to rest,
Just let love be our daily key,
That is God's will for you and me.
Submitted.

SHOES

Someone has said, "If the shoe fits, wear it!" We sometimes comment: "I'd hate to be in his shoes!" I think every one of us will fit into one of these styles of shoes.

LOAFER "Thou wicked and slothful servant servant." (Matt.25:27). "Be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises." (Heb. 6:12)

HIGH HEEL This fits the haughty, proud individual. A man is "Not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think." (Rom.12:3) God hates a proud look. (Prov,6:17)

OVERSHOE Puts on Christianity only when the going gets rough. Wants the prayers and visits of the preacher only when sick, etc.

HOUSE SHOE This person wants things easy, comfortable is scared off by the buildings program, mission work,etc. Can"t get out to worship in bad weather "Woe to them that are at ease in Zion". (Amos 6:1)

SANDAL Just a skeleton of a Christian; "If any man will come after me , let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow me." (Luke 9:23). As the disciples continued each DAY, the Lord added to the church DAILY. (Acts 2:46,47). How many congregations are growing DAILY?

WORK SHOES No beauty, but always in style. This is the pair of shoes we put on when there are things to be done. "God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love." "Every man's work woll be made manifest." (I Cor.3:13) When we sing "I want to be a Worker for the Lord." do we mean it? When we pray,"Lord, wear us out in thy service," is our prayer heard?

THE DISPOSITION TO DOWN- GRADE

A man accused a driver of being drunk. As a matter of fact, the driver was sober and the accuser was drunk. A woman said of her minister;"That man is mentally ill." Her saying was circulated. The minister continued his great work, but the poor woman was confined to a mental hospital for treatment. A man was charged with gross immorality. But when facts were uncovered, the man was found innocent and the charger was found guilty. The wicked woman, who accused Joseph of making improper advances, had actually tried to seduce that pure young man. Judas Iscariot, who charged Mary of wasting precious ointment on the Savior's feet, had been stealing from the bag. That infernal personality, who accuses our brethren before God day and night, is the sinner of all sinneers. Rev. 12;10

The disposition to down-grade others is due to a weakness in the life of the down-grader to envy, to an inferiority complex, to a desire to divert attention, to a sense of personal guilt. The The accuser may be guilty of the specific crime which he attempts to blame on others.

Life should be given to an endeavor more noble than to fault-finding--to love, to prayer, to good works, to the spirit of helpfulness. "Keep thyself pure." Trust the Lord in fulness of faith and see the good in all.

Frank L. Cox

NUGGETS

Look for the best and you will always find the best.
Life is gracious gift of God. Use it as God would have you.
Beautiful things attract beautiful souls. What things attract you?
Are your disappointments bitter? Many of life's greater lessons come through disappointments. Keep under control the three T's Thought, Tongue, and Temper--and you will be saved from many sorrows .
A christian is in the world but not of the world. His citizenship is in heaven. He lives on a higher plane. He conforms his life to the divine pattern--the life of Christ.

BYBEE BRANCH CHURCH OF CHRIST Wednesday, November 19, 1975

* * * * * * * * * * * *

ARE YOU RESOLVED TO GET INVOLVED?

Each member of the local church should consider what he or she can do to serve the Lord. Whether it be in some public manner or in some private work, each one should try to teach someone else the truth. Are you resolved to get involved? Here are just a few things you can do to make your church membership more rewarding and fulfilling:

1. Be present for each and every worship service and be on time. For the past few weeks it has become increasingly plain that many are not making it to service in time even for the announcements. Many do not attend at all on Sunday night or Wednesday.

2. Be present for each Bible class--and come prepared. Learning involves study and preparation.

3. If you are a lady, consider the Ladies Bible Class and the various programs of work they do. Food and clothing for the needy, hospital favors, etc.

4. As a male member of the church, I can serve in a number of public ways: teaching, praying, singing, serving the congregation, ushering, driving the bus. Attend the Men's Training Class 5:00 Sundays.

5. Help tape songs for the radio broadcast each Sunday (following service on first Sunday of the month).

6. Join in the monthly fellowship suppers--second Thursday night of each month.

7. Skating for everyone--old and young alike each second Sunday night following the services.

8. Singing at McMinnville Rest Home third Sundays.

9. Visitation team meets the last Sunday of each month.

10. If you cannot do any of the above--or if you will not--then pray that God will help those who do.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER: Thursday night, November 20th, here in the Fellowship Room of the chuch building for Cindy Bess Womack. Given by the Ladies Bible Class. All the ladies of the congregation are invited.

SINGING WAS WELL-ATTENDED: Last Sunday afternoon about 20 gathered in the lobby of the McMinnville Rest Home to do some singing for the patients there. This is a rewarding way to bring some care into the lives of others. You are welcome to come next month and help in this edifying cause.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT: Classes for everyone interested in growing and learning more about Jesus, His church, and the life of all santified children of God. Meeting is at 7:00.

BRING A FRIEND: How long has it been since you invited somebody to come to church with you? Are you willing on going out of your way to pick them up? Bring someone to services this week.

ONE WEEK FROM SUNDAY: The last Sunday in the month the visitation team will meet. Plan to have all your visits made and stay for a short meeting following the evening service, November 30th.

OUR SICK: George Grizzell in Warren County Hospital.
Sister Waddell was out of services Sunday, at home ill.
Grace Nunley is recovering from heart attack.
Claude Jones was sick and unable to attend Sunday.

THANK-YOU NOTES RECEIVED:

"Thank you for many phone calls, cards and gift from the Ladies Bible Class." --Dewey Cantrell

"The family of Grady Cantrell acknowledges with deep appreciation your kind expression of sympathy." --Jim, Jackie Cantrell

WHY IS IT? When we play baseball, we want to make a home run. When we play football, we want to make a touchdown. When we play basketball, we want to be high scorer. But, on the Lord's team, we don't want to practice! Fact is, we don't even want to come to the place of training!
WHY IS IT? God called us to play the game, not to keep the score. --Ridgecrest Church

"NOT GOING YOUR WAY"

"You're out of date," said young Pastor Bate
To one of our faithful old preachers,
Who had carried for years, in travail and with tears,
The gospel to poor sinful creatures.

"You still preach on Hades and shock cultured ladies
With your barbarous doctrine of blood.
You're far behind, you'll never catch up:
You're a flat tire stuck in the mud."

For some little while, a wee bit of a smile
Played over the old preacher's face.
Being made the butt of ridicules cut
Did not ruffle his sweetness or grace.

Then he turned to young Bate, so smooth and calm,
"Catch up, did my ears hear you say?
Why, I couldn't succeed if I doubled my speed;
My friend, I'm not going your way."

You can straighten out some kids by bending them over (your knee).

"I Don't Believe in Whipping Children

Harry Rimmer tells of an unpleasant experience he had with a rowdy boy. After repeated efforts to get him to behave had failed, he approached the boy's father explaining that his son was destroying property and making a terrible nuisance of himself.

The father listened, then shrugged his shoulders and said: "Well, I can't do anything with the little devil! One of these days he'll land in real trouble, and the law will handle him. He belongs in a reform school anyhow!"

Astonished, Rimmer said he wanted to say: "Generally speaking, a little devil would be the offspring of a big one!" But instead he questioned: "What do you mean, you can't do anything? The boy is 12 years old and weighs less than a quarter of your weight. You have a hairbrush, haven't you?"

The father glared at him and answered: "I don't believe in whipping children!"

"But you do believe," Rimmer retorted, "in letting them go to jail?"

The man walked away without replying, and Rimmer never saw him again. However, he did see the boy occasionally. The last time was when he was taken away to the State Reform School.

Considering the attitude of that father, it's evident that the court was forced to sentence the wrong culprit! That father did not truly love his son, for: "He thatspareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chaseth him betimes" (Proverbs 13:24).

While obedience may be produced primarily by patient teaching and careful guidance, almost every child needs a spanking on occasion. And the depth of a parents devotion to his child is at times measured by his willingness to inconvenience himself and inflict needed punishment, when every impulse cries out to "drop the matter and save yourself the trouble!" The loving parent heeds the Divine advice:

"Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die. Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell" (Proverbs 23:13, 14).

continued;

David insisted that children are "as arrows" in the hand of a mighty man (Psalms 127:4). An arrow doesn't fly straight unless it is aimed straight. Neither does a child! Joe R. Barnet

CONSIDER THE PENCIL

I have before me just a common lead pencil, but how much like this pencil uou are as a Christian.

This pencil was made for a purpose, and properly directed, can be very useful. An inspiring message can be written with it, or a lie, or damaging gossip can be spread abroad with it. It must have the proper guidance.

It bears the name of its maker, and the reputation of the make depends upon how this pencil does work. I haven't seen the maker of this pencil so I must get my impression of him form his product.

To correct a mistake, to erase an error, the head of the pencil must be brought low, in an humble position. As long as the head is held high the mistake is not corrected. Instead more damage is done. Will you take a lesson from this pencil? Selected. . ..

There would not be so much wrong with the younger generation if parents, and especially all Christians, would remain a part of the younger generation as long as they live. No one should isolate himself from any age group in the church and community. All ages of church members are related in Christ and need each other. We do not need one church for aged people, and another for the younger people. All of us alike need the same gospel and the edifying truth. All of us alike have the same problem - the sin problem- to fight and overcome. While the young people are LEARNING, the older ones should be UNDERSTANDING. Both young and older in the church are to be united as brothers and sisters in Christ, all loving each other and working together for the salvation of a lost and sinful world. (I John 2:14).

* * * * * * * * * * *

It is good to earn money and to enjoy the things that it can buy. But it is far better to posses (and not lose) those things which money can't buy- love, character, faith, hope, salvation and the blessings of God.

"If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible our country will go on prospering, but if we and our prosperity neglect its instruction and authority, no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overwhelm us and bury us and our glory in profound obscurity." - DANIEL WEBSTER

HAPPY HOLIDAYS: May we take this opportunity to thank each one at Bybee Branch for the cards and kindnesses shown us as your minister and his family. You have been and continue to be to us an inspiration. Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Singing at the McMinnville Rest Home is this Sunday, December 21st. Plan to come and be with us in the lobby of the Home at 2:00 PM.

Radio WAKI says that the trouble we have been having with our broadcast is their fault, and that they should have it completely straightened out and we should not have any further difficulty.

NURSERY UPSTAIRS: A nursery is provided for those children that need it and it is located upstairs toward the back of the auditorium. Mothers and/or Fathers that need to take there children there may do so that our services might be conducted as quietly and as spiritual as is possible.

Baptism: We rejoice with Patricia Mayberry who was baptized into Christ Sunday morning following the service. We welcome her here and everyone should add her name to the directory.

The LADIES BIBLE CLASS will not meet again until further notice. There will be a few weeks of recess until the holidays and bad weather are over. This good class will be announced later when it will be resumed.

CHRISTMAS PARTY SUNDAY NIGHT: This Sunday night we will have the annual Christmas party for all the classes. Instead of going to the school as in the past years, we will remain in our classrooms and then use the fellowship room for refreshments. Donations to Doris Smith should be made as soon as possible.

A FIFTY YEAR OLD DECISION

Now that brother Gus Nichols is no longer with us in the body we are made to reflect on some of the things he said while he was with us. One of the thousands of short articles he wrote goes like this:

"People do not accidently attend worship without missing one worship service for twenty years. They have planned to always attend.

"Soon after I obeyed the gospel in the fall of 1909, I read of another brother who had not missed going to church a single Sunday in forty-one years. That story caused me to resolve and to purpose in my heart that I would never miss the worship on a single Lord's day as long as I lived, if possible to attend. I have missed four Sundays in over fifty years, and then it was because of illness.

"It is a sin for any member of the church to miss worship unless he is unable to attend. The very nature of our religion is such that those who feel this is a burden need to be converted."

Can we say as brother Nichols did we haven't missed the services of the church except for illness? Or do we miss the services because we put more value on things of this life?

* * * * * * * * * * * *

If believing and obeying the gospel of Christ offends others, only they are to be blamed for the offense. We must follow Jesus whether men like it or not. We must obey and serve Christ in order to go to heaven at last (Rev. 22:14). This we must do whether we are in unity with others or not (Lk. 12:51-53).

* * * * * * * * * * * *

If you want to be miserable, hate somebody.

BE A DAILY READER IN 1976!

How many times have you read God's Word through from cover to cover? If you begin and read three chapters everyday and five chapters each Sunday, then you will be able to read the Bible through in a year! Think of the advantages of being a daily Bible reader; of reading this Book through every year of the rest of your life. What better resolution could you have for the new year? ". . . these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily whether those things were so." (Acts 17:11).

OUR SICK: George Grizzell will be home for a few days over the holidays before going to St. Thomas hospital in Nashville on Dec. 26th.

Dewey Cantrell was sick Sunday and unable to be with us.

Fate and Lucille Cantrell were out of services Sunday.

Lynn and Hallie Cantrell were also unable to attend Sunday.

Margarite Loudermilk is recovering from back surgery.

VISITATION TEAM will have a short meeting following the evening services on Sunday night.

THANK YOU CARDS RECEIVED:

"Thank you for the beautiful flowers, and every kind expression of sympathy."
--W.E. and Haskell Neal

"I wish to thank the Ladies Bible Class for the flowers and all thoughtfulness of me while I was in the hospital". --Edward Stubblefield

"Many thanks for the flowers, cards, and fruit basket. May God bless each of you. In Christian love. . . .Clyde Cantrell
