Youth News

The Pew Packers will meet this Sunday in the Fellowship Room beginning at 5 pm.

The first Spiritual Body Building and Inner Beauty Salon will be this Sunday following evening services. Our theme is Practical Christianity and the first session will be entitled, "A Christian's Life in this World."

All Bybee Branch high school students are invited to a "Get-A-Way." Those interested should be prepared to leave on Monday, October 11th at (TBD) and arrive back on Tuesday night. Cost is $40.00. Please let me know by this Wednesday if you plan on going.

What a great feeling to be back and participating in the Bible Bowl. We had approximately 360 people to assemble in our building last Sunday afternoon. A huge thanks to everyone who helped organize and prepare the refreshments, move and arrange chairs/ desks, monitor, and help navigate students to their respective rooms. The Bybee team came in tied for third place missing only 3 questions (2 of which I take responsibility for.) However, on the three bonus fill-in-the-blanks, we got two completely right and missed the last one by only one word ("have" vs. "behave"!)

Great job kids! The order of finish was (1st) Ivy Bluff, (2nd) Bluff Springs & Woodbury, (3rd) Bybee Branch, Leoni, Main Street, New Union, & Smyrna, (4th) East End & Rockliff. The next study will be over 1 Timothy 4 – 6.

Autumn Street Fair

This past Saturday, October 2nd was the Autumn Street Fair in downtown McMinnville. The weather was awesome, the crowds were huge, and the booth was manned by enthusiastic workers. Thanks to everyone who worked in the booth and a super thanks to Allen Hughes for coordinating this event.

God's Faithful Servant

... 'Well done, good and faithful servant...' (Matt 25:21)

Ray Garraway of Ykinipa, Guyana ended his earthly journey Sunday. Until I began taking short term mission trips twenty years ago, I had never met anyone who had to sacrificed very much to follow the life of a Christian. Since that time I have met a number of men and women who followed Jesus with much personal sacrifice of material things as well as alienation of family and friends. Bro. Ray was one of those faithful gospel preachers who literally gave up a lot of material blessings to spread God's word to the Amerindian people. At the time of his conversion, he held a position with a Baptist organization which furnished him a nice house and support. He gave that up and spent two years in the preacher's school learning to be a gospel preacher. At the time he decided to go to the jungle to teach the Amerindians, he was preaching for a congregation that had a nice church building and he had all the material comforts that were available such as electricity and refrigeration. He admitted to me that for the first year or so after he went to the jungle, he really struggled with the lack of the things he had taken for granted. He continued to preach the word and converted nearly everyone in the village. Bro. Ray will be greatly missed by everyone he came in contact with. Please keep his wife, Inez, in your prayers as she struggles to adjust to her great loss.

Pantry Food Drive

Due to numerous calls the food pantry has become very low and needs to be restocked. Last Sunday and this Sunday were designated as a time to restock the pantry. Please bring any non-perishable item, or if you wish, you may give a monetary donation to any of the elders and food will be purchased in bulk to help restock it. Thanks in advance for your generosity! You always come through in an abundant way.
