Cost

Suppose I am visiting in your home and I notice a lovely vase on the coffee table. I pick it up and admire it, but suddenly it slips from my hand, falls to the floor, and breaks! "Oh, I'm so sorry!" I say, and I offer to pay for it. I know I have a fifty-dollar bill in my wallet, so I think I'm safe.

But you tell me there are only two such vases in the world, and the other one is valued at $2,000! Am I any sorrier now than I was a few moments ago? Yes. I am $2,000 sorrier! What made the difference? Knowing the cost. Many people look carelessly upon Christianity, thinking it's just another of the world's great religions. But when we look at the Cross of Calvary and realize what our salvation cost, suddenly Christianity and the One whose life it represents take on a whole new meaning. So then, what value do you place on Jesus?

Look Carefully

Look carefully, then look again,
The word is sin. It is not swen.
Look at the word and you will see,
In the middle of sin stands I, not we.

On My First Day Spent in Eternity

On my first day spent in eternity
My Savior asked, "What brought you to Me?"
I closed my eyes and thought for awhile
On my journey just taken mile after mile

Images flashed into my mind
Of loving arms and faces so kind
I saw myself with children at play
And hearing of God and learning His way

I saw small hands with crayons and books
And paint brushes, glue sticks, buttons and hooks
I saw Bible stories colored with pride
And heard all the children laughing outside

And oh, what a noise filled my heart with such joy
As I recalled the sweet singing of each girl and each boy
I heard their glad voices reach up to the sky
In songs of such praise to their Savior on high

And then as I turned a table was spread
With cookies and candy and sweet gingerbread
And cupcakes and crackers and wafers to eat
With lemonade, tea and punch oh, so sweet!

I knew then the answer to say
To my Savior on that glorious day
"Twas strangers, Lord, that brought me to You
"When I was a child, and no more than two

"They took the time to fill my day
"With knowledge of a better way
"And year by year as I grew up
"I learned to drink of that same cup

"Twas love I felt, and love I knew
"From people who were filled with You
"They took the time to teach Your love
"And that is why I'm here above!"

"Yes, My child, you have spoken true
"It was My love that brought you through!"
So do not doubt the good that's done
By bringing children to the Son!

A Sermon Never to Be Forgotten

Throughout the years I have heard many wonderful sermons, most of which I have forgotten. But one sermon I saw has remained in my heart until this day. It happened on a Sunday morning when I was on my way to one of the two small congregations in Munich, Germany on a cold, rainy day in November. When I got out of bed I looked through the window which was covered with ice ferns. New deep snow had fallen during the night, covering the streets of the city. I tried to decide whether I should go to worship or stay at home and read my Bible. I knew the congregation would miss me, for I was the only song leader they had. On the other hand, I would have to walk a half a block to catch the bus to the building. I finally decided to go, but only because I was to lead the singing. While I was riding the bus I noticed two people trying hard to make their path through the snow. I recognized the people and knew where they were going. They were brother and sister Trollman, a faithful couple who attended every service. Brother Trollman was a man in his 80's who had lost his eyesight. His only guidance was his 75-year old wife, who was lame in one foot. They lived in a little two-room apartment and received a little support from the government. Because they could not afford to ride the bus to the services, which were about three miles away, they walked to the meeting every Lord's Day. Here I was, sitting in a warm bus, unwilling to go to worship, forced by my duty as a song leader, and there, outside in the cold weather, were two old people driven by their love for the Lord. I was not able to do anything but blush — I was ashamed of myself and the weak faith and love I had proven for my Lord. I felt like an evil-doer in court being judged by his own conscience. This old couple, without their knowledge and without one word, taught me a greater lesson than could ever have been said in words.
