Wisdom from Songs...

See if you can locate this verse in our songbook.

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

Youth News

DOOR KNOCKING OPPORTUNITY

Brother Dorris Hughes, preacher for the West Riverside congregation, has asked our youth to again help knock doors to advertise their upcoming Gospel Meeting. The date is Saturday, May 11th, beginning at 10:00 am. This is a great opportunity to help a sister congregation and learn to evangelize.

Pew Packers meets this Sunday evening at 5 pm in fellowship room. Topic is Jesus Healed People.

WWJL – What Would Jesus “Like”

In 1995, Joan Osborne released a song that asked the question, “What if God was one of us?” Every time I heard this song play on the radio, I would think to myself, and frequently answer aloud to the radio, “He was! In the person of Jesus” (John 1:14).

Can I have your imagination for a moment? What if, in God’s great scheme of redemption, the “fulness of time” (Galatians 4:4) would have been now, 2013?

If that were the case, Jesus would very likely have a Facebook page, wouldn’t he? Surely he would utilize a medium that has the potential to reach millions of people instantaneously. But if Jesus did have a Facebook page, I’m afraid it would look very different from those who claim to be his followers.

Because God was one of us and we saw his glory, we know some of the things he would and wouldn’t “Like.” He wouldn’t “Like” pictures that depict people immodestly dressed (1 Timothy 2:9-10). He wouldn’t “Like” videos that depict lewd and suggestive behavior (Ephesians 5:3). He wouldn’t “Like” off-color jokes, or references that reinforce racial prejudices (Ephesians 5:4). He wouldn’t “Like” public airing of personal problems (Matthew 18:15), and nor would he “Like” posts that disrespect our civil authorities (Romans 13:1-7), just to name a few.

Friends, the next time we get ready to “Like” someone’s status, maybe we should slow down just a bit, think twice about what it means to be a follower of Jesus, and ask ourselves, “What Would Jesus Like?” (WWJL).

Mom, How Do You Fill in the Blank?

We are a nation of adjectives. We cannot just say something; we have to add descriptive words to make sure we get just the right sense of meaning in all that we are talking about.

That seems to be especially true when it comes to describing people. One person is good, while another is friendly. Someone is kindhearted, while another is cruel. We are always describing people.

Today, we are celebrating mothers on the day set aside by our nation to honor them. It is always interesting to me to hear how people describe their mother. Nearly every time, there is a description.

"She was a wonderful mother."

"She is a mother who is always there for us."

"She is a sweet lady."

"She is always thinking of others first."

And on and on it goes. We almost never simply say, "She's my mom!" We constantly add something to honor her.

Knowing that, moms need to ask how they are living their lives! What kind of description would others say about you? The virtuous woman of Proverbs 31 had children who "rise up and call her blessed" (v. 28), because she lived the right kind of life before them.

Moms, if your children were to write out what they think of you and leave blanks where the descriptive words go, how would you fill in those blanks? Your life will answer that question.
