Youth News

SHORT MOUNTAIN BIBLE CAMP begins this Sunday, July 14th. If you have not registered it is not to late. Go to www.shortmountaincamp.org for more details.

All youth are invited to the home of Steve & Sharla Hillis this Thursday night for MOVIE UNDER THE STARS. The movie choice is “Around the World in 80 Days” (2004 version.) Start showing up around 8 pm with a lawn chair. Plus, free popcorn and water! Come on over and watch a really good (and clean) movie.

Our PEW PACKER classes have been exceptional this year. We are using the theme “Life of Jesus” and have studied Jesus as a 12 year old, His baptism, choosing His apostles, the Cana wedding, His healing power, and calming a storm. The kids are learning that Jesus truly is the Son of God. When we meet this Sunday, July 14th, at 5 pm in the fellowship room, the emphasis will be about Jesus feeding over 5000 people. We begin with a young men led devotional, then have lots of singing, Bible Story time, and finish with a craft or activity. We kindly ask that you make this a priority for your children.

The July edition of BYBEE BRANCH YOUTH NEWSLETTER is available in the foyer.

REMAINING JULY SCHEDULE:

July 20th Riverfront Park Cookout & Devotional

July 22nd/24th Vacation Bible School

July 26th Lake Winnie

July 27th Back to School Bash

July 28th Home Devotional

July 29th Service Day

July 31st Birthday Wednesday

Sympathy

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Leah Pack who was killed in a tragic accident last Thursday. A graveside memorial will be this Thursday at 11 am at Armstrong Cemetery.

Summer Series

This Sunday evening our speaker will be brother Lane Dix. A native of Arkansas, brother Lane preached for several years for the Mt. Leo congregation and is now preaching for the church in Summitville. He also serves as vice principal and Bible teacher at Boyd Christian School. He has been with us on several occasions and this time will be speaking on “What is Truth?”

Congregational Notification System

The elders have established a system to notify those in the congregation who wished to be informed of serious accidents and deaths within the congregation. This program will also be used to notify when singers are needed for funerals. Participation is optional. Many of you filled out your forms this past Sunday. A table remains in the lobby for those who were unable to complete one this past week. Please be sure to complete only the manner in which you wish to be contacted. It is not necessary to fill in all the information. In case you need to make changes the completed forms are in a book on the table in alphabetic order.

Do and Say

*“Two brothers once lived down this way,
And one was Do and the other Say.
If streets were dirty, taxes high,
Or schools were crowded, Say would cry:
“My what a town!” but brother Do would set to work
And make things new.
And while Do worked, Say still would cry:
“He does it wrong, I know that I could do it right.”
So, all the day - was heard the clank of the brother Say,
But this one fact from none was hid.
Say would always talk, Do always did.”*

~ Benny Bristow ~

“I Must Do Something” will always accomplish more than “Something Must Be Done.”

Our Vacation Bible School

Our VBS will be July 22-24, with the theme Great Characters of the Old Testament. We will have classes for Nursery through 3 years old, Learning Centers for Ages 4-12 and then for Adults there will be a class in the auditorium. Brother Teddy Jones from the Bluff Springs church will be our speaker.

Even if you are not teaching you can help this VBS be a great success by inviting and bringing children.

We are still in need of a few city leaders. If you are willing to help as a city leader see Steve Hillis.

Namesake

It's difficult to receive correction, isn't it? It's easy when being corrected to fall into judging the person's motives for correcting us, taking offense at the way they corrected us, and searching out inconsistencies and errors in the life of the one correcting us.

But I guess that's why David was said to be a “man after God's own heart” (1 Samuel 13:14). You see, David faced the stinging rebuke by the prophet, Nathan. In fact, Nathan set him up in such a way that David had to have been humiliated and embarrassed. But what did King David do? Did he criticize Nathan for the way he rebuked him? No. Did he make excuses for his conduct? No. Did he seek out a way to discredit Nathan? No.

Do you know what King David did? He named a son after Nathan! Check it out (1 Chronicles 3:5). Not only did David not take offense at what Nathan did to him, he later named one of his son's “Nathan.” That's true humility and reflects a genuine desire to be right with God. David didn't hate Nathan for his rebuke, he loved him for it.

Friends, those who have the courage to confront us for our own good aren't worthy of our hatred or vengeance. In fact, in David's case, his confronter was worthy of “namesake.” Give it some thought.
