Something To Think About...

"Words are leaves — deeds are fruit."

"Think like a man of action and act like a man of thought." Henri Bergson

"The actions of men are the best interpreters of their thoughts." John Locke

"Knowing is not enough; we must apply. Willing is not enough; we must do." Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

Youth News

What an inspiring sight last Sunday night as several sister congregation's youth visited us for TABS. I hope that everyone, but especially the youth in attendance, came away understanding that our speech can build up or tear down, praise God or blaspheme His holy name. Tony's message left no room for interpretation that the Bible asks us to give honor and glory to our Father. A huge thanks to our elders for allowing us to host this event and to everyone who helped with food and activities.

The Keeles will host our HOME DEVOTIONAL this Sunday evening. As usual, boys are to bring a drink and girls a dessert. We will use 1 Peter 4:1-2 as our devotional topic. I want to encourage our youth to use this as an evangelistic opportunity and invite friends/family to worship with us Sunday night then bring their guests to the devo. To God be the glory!

BIRTHDAY WEDNESDAY is next week, November 19th. A food sign-up sheet will be up soon.

A tried and true BBYG tradition is just around the corner! The annual WEDNESDAY NITE YOUTH SOMETHING will take place November 26th.

Don't forget the sign-ups on the Youth Bulletin Board for EVANGELISM UNIVERSITY, EU2, and CHALLENGE YOUTH CONFERENCE.

PARENTS: I will be handing-out a BIBLE BOWL STUDY GUIDE for 1 Peter chapter 4 this Wednesday night. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Elders-Deacons Meeting

The regularly scheduled Elder and Deacons Meeting will be a week from Sunday, November 23, at 5 PM

Do You Complain or Greet?

Luke 15:1-3 are the opening lines of what is usually considered one of the greatest chapters of all the Bible. One parable, three stories to convey the message of value and joy when lost souls have been found!

Have you lost anything of value? When Tracie and I had been married for about a decade, one of the prongs broke on her engagement ring. It was a heart shape diamond that was very special to both of us. We were so disappointed. We retraced steps, felt our carpet with our fingers, sifted through grass near our sidewalks, inspected the car and the house, but finally had to accept that it was lost. When we considered another ring, she didn't want a heart shape this time. She felt that the original couldn't be replaced. Somewhat like a soul isn't it? Each soul in the sight of God has value. We can't fall into the mindset of seeing guests on Sunday and thinking, what if we reach out to 50% of them? We are friendly to most, is that wise? Don't the others have souls too? Why would some not reach out to all?

In this great chapter of Luke 15 we see some drawing near to the Lord who are lost. We see Pharisees and scribes (they would have deemed themselves righteous and saved) complaining because the lost are coming near! You would hope they would have greeted instead of complained.

Luke 14 is the beginning of the last Sabbath Day that we have recorded before the Sabbath that begins His final week in which He will be crucified. Throughout the 14th chapter of John, Jesus has placed the value of souls above their animals (1-6). This may sound easy, but most would look for their lost dog much more urgently than they would a lost soul. Then Jesus teaches on humility. With that backdrop He teaches us to exalt and serve all souls, even the poor and maimed (7-14). No excuses (15-24). Most excuses still fall under property, possessions, and relationships just as he taught nearly 2,000 years ago. Then in Jesus' authoritative way, He declared individuals cannot be disciples if they don't love the Lord more than all others including themselves (25-33). After these straightforward teachings Jesus offered to teach more if anyone wanted to stay longer (35). That is why chapter 15 begins with the word "Then." The sinners wanted to know more about discipleship with no excuses. They wanted to follow a leader who demands that all be treated well and served. But the Pharisees complained. (Insert tears). Doesn't this break your heart? Let us never complain to give up our seat, parking spot, or class for a guest to "draw near to Him." Let it be our prayer and intention to greet and love the lost the way Jesus does!

Luke 15:1 Then all the tax collectors and the sinners drew near to Him to hear Him. 2 And the Pharisees and scribes complained, saying, "This Man receives sinners and eats with them."

Can You Find The Bible Books?

I once made some remarks about hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu; kept some people looking so hard for facts and studying for revelation, they were in a jam, especially since the books were not capitalized. But the truth finally struck numbers of our readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some real easy to spot, others may require judges to determine. We must admit it usually takes a minute to find one, and there will be loud lamentations when you see how simple it is. One lady says she brews coffee while she puzzles her brain over it. There are 15 out of 66 books tucked in this story. See if you can find them. Circle them when you discover them.
