Sympathy

We extend our sympathy to the family Mary Jo Lance (mother of Mark Lance who formerly attended Bybee Branch, now preacher at the Chalmette church of Christ, and mother of Johnny Lance, preacher at Earleyville). She passed away on Saturday evening in Chalmette, LA.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Winford Claiborne. He passed from this life early Tuesday morning. Brother Claiborne spoke numerous times at Bybee Branch and was a very dear friend to many. He was one of the preachers at the West Fayetteville church of Christ and the speaker for the International Gospel Hour. Arrangements are incomplete.

The Thief on the Cross

The day Jesus died was a day in which the creation crucified the Creator. Yet, by the irony of divine wisdom, God used this gruesome means of taking life to give life! Not only did Jesus hang on that center cross, but so did the hope of all humanity. This moment in time, and the transaction that took place on that day, was without question the defining moment in history.

But if that be the case, why is the record of Jesus' death cluttered with peripheral information about the death of an irrelevant thief who also died that day? Surely, there's a bigger story here in the death of Jesus, than to waste ink on the deserved death of a thief.

Well, may I suggest that the death of the thief is not an irrelevant, peripheral event, but an important part of a bigger story? You see, the cross of Jesus proclaims the depth of God's love in that he was willing to give his only Son (John 3:16). But alongside that proclamation is the proclamation from the cross upon which the thief died. This cross proclaimed the scope of God's love.

The message from the thief's cross speaks to all of us who struggle with guilt for wasting so much of our lives in sin. It speaks to those of us who have waited much too long to surrender to Jesus. It speaks to all of us who have nothing left to offer God but an apology. The thief's cross announces that God is a God of grace!

I hope we can find peace in that truth. Without the cross of Jesus there would be no hope. But without the thief's cross, maybe we would doubt if the redemption Jesus secured could reach a sinner like me!

When the thief on the cross had nothing left to offer God but an apology, Jesus promised him Paradise! Thank God for the the redemption procured on the cross of Christ, and also for the hope that is illustrated by the thief's cross.

Glowing Lights

Those in Christ have lamps
Shinning to show they are loyal
These must never burn low
Nor run out of oil.

When Jesus returns in the clouds
With heaven's glory and might
Surely He'll be well pleased
To see our glowing lights.

A Winner Over Death

They closed the tomb's door around Him
By rolling a stone in its place
The soldiers were guarding each moment
So no one could steal Him away.

Then came that great Sunday morning
When death could not hold its prey
For God's power broke all things asunder
And Jesus came out of the grave.
