Another Day

O the bliss of a newborn day
And the freshness of morning's dew
When life reaches its highest peak
With such a God-given view.

Life is a beautiful gift from God
Then what more can we say
Except, thanks to the living God
For the light of another day.

Youth News

Due to a technical glitch (meaning I didn't actually take the picture ☺), the BBYG are asked to assemble this Sunday morning for another group shot. Dress nice, again!

CAMP REWIND will take place this Saturday, August 23rd, at New Union. The bus will leave at 5:30 pm. IF you went to Short Mountain Bible Camp in July this is especially for you, however it IS open to all the BBYG. We will reminisce about camp, have a devotional and singing, and then enjoy food. This will be a fun time, so make plans to join us.

Once again it is time for TABS (TeenAge Bible Study) to start. Our theme for this season is "Thinking Outside the Box." Grundy Street (Tullahoma) will host the first session this Sunday, August 24th. We will need to leave at 5:15 pm. The topic will be "Life: It's Not A Game!"

Please remember that BIRTHDAY WEDNESDAY will be Wednesday, August 27th.

Paul and Kara Hurst will be hosting a SCAVENGER HUNT on Saturday, August 30th. We WILL have a blast so put this on your calendar. More details to come.

One of the great events on the BBYG calendar is just around the corner. The 17th Annual LABOR DAY YOUTH MADNESS: COUNTDOWN TO MIDNITE! will take place on Sunday, August 31st. When you have an event that is older than most of the participants, then it must be successful! IF you plan on attending and bringing guests, you must be signed-up by Sunday morning, August 31st. This is a great opportunity to invite friends and introduce them to the youth group. Full details are on the Youth Bulletin board.

Also, RUSH at Freed Hardeman is the weekend of September 12th. Details for this trip are up, so check it out and sign-up.

Bybee Branch Church of Christ
McMinnville, Tennessee, 37110

Dear Brothers and sisters,
Greeting in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, who have put us into his ministry. I am writing to thank you for the support I am receiving from you every month. This has supported me tremendously in my preaching at Katoka. Thank you for the love and care for me and my family. Most of all thank you for Jesus in bring us into One body where we enjoy the sweet fellowship as these.

There are forty six member now and I requesting for your prayer for more soul to be added to the church. Also for us to be strong in the Lord. I will remember you in my prayers so that God will preserve us for the home in heaven.

God Bless you all,
Your Brother in Christ
Archer Moses

The church here sends $200 per month through the Summerdale church of Christ to support brother Moses.

Longest Speech, Shortest Term

The shortest inaugural address was George Washington's second, in 1793, and it was comprised of 193 words! William Henry Harrison, though raised a cultured, educated man, campaigned on a folksy ticket symbolized by the log cabin. To set a different, more cultured tone for his presidency, Harrison decided to give a lengthy, erudite speech on a bitterly cold, early March day in 1841. He spoke for nearly two hours, doing so without benefit of a topcoat or hat. Historians are generally agreed that Harrison's motivation was to show himself not be a country bumpkin or simpleton. While it is unclear if his exposure led to the pneumonia that killed him exactly a month later, it still boils down to a lot of talk and very little execution.

How often do we, as congregations, spend a seemingly endless amount of time outlining, discussing, and rehashing grand plans? Goals and planning are vital to a church's existence, but so often much talk produces little action. In any congregation's mind, they are going to be a fast-growing, active, moving, and shaking bunch. Yet, so few churches are that. We spend our time laying out the plan and give ourselves so little time to do it.

We do that in our individual lives, too. We make big plans for tomorrow (cf. Jas. 4:13-15). Like the poet expressed it, "He was going to be all that man should be. . . tomorrow; no one would be kinder or braver than he. . . tomorrow." Yet, the poet depicts the dreamer as one who died today while hoping for tomorrow. Are we making grand, long-winded speeches about all we are going to do? Are we spending so much time outlining it that we have so little time left to execute it?

Thinking of all you know about William Henry Harrison compared to George Washington. Both were thinkers and planners, but oh the difference in how we remember each of them. Think, then do!
