Youth News

Last week the young men of the congregation conducted the services and did an outstanding job. I felt like the young men were my own children (as weird as that sounds). I was excited to see them up there leading the congregation and at the same time nervous for them. All I was responsible for was changing the slides for the singing and I think I was more nervous doing that than I am when I speak. If you haven't already, would you please let these young men know how good of a job they are doing. These young men may develop into deacons, elders, of the Lord's Church one day. So we need to encourage them as much as we can.

After services the younger men came forward and lead the congregation in prayers and songs. These young men seemed like it was a piece of cake. They did not seem to be bothered by the large crowd. They jumped right up there and did a tremendous job.

Pew Packers class have been studying very hard to memorize their books. After services Luke Andrews was able to recite from memory the New Testament Books of the Bible and said that he thinks he will have the Old Testament Books of the Bible by next week. I have been encouraged by each of these efforts in memorizing Biblical Information. I told the Pew Packers class that when most of the class has memorized most of the booklet that we would go have fun and celebrate all of their hard work,

I said all of that to say this. Last Sunday was a great day, a busy day for sure but very uplifting and very encouraging to me. Please take time to encourage them and get to know them because they are trying their best and let's try to help them along with some encouragement.

For those participating in the Bible this month, please be back at the building around 12:30 so we can try and study and review for the test. We need to leave the building at 1:30 to head towards Morrison.

Time Change

Daylight Savings Time ends this weekend. Be sure to set your clocks back one hour or you might be early for services this Sunday.

What Kind Of Church Attender Are You?

"And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works; Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." Heb. 10:24-25

There are some in the church who believe it is not important to attend worship services. For them, attending church services are good if there is not anything else to do or someplace else to visit or some other activity to engage in. With some, as long as they show up occasionally or especially on Sunday morning, that is all that really counts.

Let us realize that even when we attend as we should, we must do so with the right purpose, motive and attitude. You see, if our motive and attitude are not right, then it matters not how many worship services we may attend.

It is evident that our attitude toward God, His Word and Worship itself will determine the kind of "attender" we'll be. What kind of attender are you? Are you a...

- Special occasion attender? Some believe that whenever there is a special occasion, a holiday, etc., that's the time to be in attendance. To them, other regular times for worship services are not important.
- Seasonal attender? This attitude toward attendance is that it depends on the season of the year. If it is "camping season", "deer-hunting season", "baseball season", "football season", etc., then being in attendance for the services is not as important. These so-called "seasons" should never hinder us from being faithful to the Lord, including the attendance of the services.

- Spasmodic attender? Some come for a while, then miss for a while. With them, this becomes a way of life. You can never rely or depend upon them to take an active part in the work of the church.
- Suit-yourself attender? These attend only when it "suits them" and it does not interfere with doing something else they want to do. To them, attending the services is not a spiritual priority.
- Sunday morning only attender? These do not see the need for Sunday night or Wednesday night services; and, most of the time, Sunday morning Bible class either. They think like the old Bryl-cream commercial, "a little dab will do you." They are the ones who are always asking, "How many services do I have to attend?" Their attitude of mind is "how little can I do and get by with?"
- Sleeping attender? These use the worship services as a time to catch up on their sleep that they didn't get the night before. They did not use that time to prepare themselves to worship God acceptably on Sunday morning. To them, worship services are not valuable and vital to their spiritual well-being.
- Sorehead attender? These enter the church building "mad" and "upset" and are just waiting for someone to say or do something they can attack and then they are ready to give them "a piece of their mind." They don't want to participate in worship nor anything else that might help them spiritually. They are in the "kick-a-tive mood." They feel compelled to try to stir-up trouble.

Do you see yourself among any of these groups? If so, change your attitude and action, "Repent!" Yes, it is sinful to willfully forsake the services of the church (Heb. 10:24-25); and, it is sinful to not have the proper motive and attitude (John 4:24).

When our actions and attitudes toward church attendance are not right, we demonstrate a lack of love for God, for the Word of God, for the church, for ourselves and others (John 14:15; Heb. 10:24-26; Col. 3:1-3; Rev. 22:14; 2 Peter 3:18).

Let us develop an attitude of mind as David, when he said, "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go unto the house of the Lord." (Psa. 122:1)
