Youth News

- January 6 - Bible Bowl @ Bybee Branch
- January 12 - Youth Service Project
- January 13 - Pew Packers
- January 27 - Home Devo @ Paul & Kara Hurst
- January 30 - Birthday Wednesday

Bible Bowl:

Bible Bowl will be here at Bybee Branch this coming Sunday, but will be hosted by the Earleyville Congregation. Please make plans to attend and encourage our youth as they are quizzed over Acts 15-19.

Youth Service Project:

This quarter we will do a service project for a group of men that are well deserving of our efforts. If you would like to help please see Aaron as I am trying to keep this a surprise.

Pew Packers:

This month we will continue studying the book of Acts, during our time, since most of the pew packer class is participating in the monthly Bible Bowl.

Home Devo:

Make plans now to attend the first home devotional of 2019. You will be glad that you joined us. We will eat, have fun and have a short lesson brought to us from God's word all while fellowshiping with each other.

Birthday Wednesday:

We will kick off 2019 by celebrating anyone's birthday in January. Just in case anyone is wondering what to get me for my birthday this month. Chocolate chip cookies dipped in milk is my favorite. (Wink wink)

Iglesia de Cristo

This coming Sunday, January 6, the Iglesia de Cristo will begin meeting in our building. They will be meeting in Room 21, upstairs. The teenage class that has been meeting in that room will move to Room 1. Since all the children of the Hispanic congregation speak English they will attend Bible Classes with our children. Be sure to give everyone a warm welcome.

Broken Promises

Various studies support the following statistics. Twenty-five percent of New Year's resolutions are broken during the first week of January. Nearly seventy percent are cast aside before February comes. Only a precious few (8%) survive to the end of December. And the saddest part is that no one will likely notice that a resolution has been broken. The exception is keeping your New Year's promise. Resolutions may be frivolously made and just as easily broken. Failure is not taken as that serious.

This is a sure sign that the resolution was too vague. A resolution that can be broken without concern or consequence is meaningless. Perhaps that's why the Bible talks about commitment rather than resolutions. A commitment counts. When you fail to keep a commitment it is a real failure.

We should have clear goals set before us as we begin this New Year. Those goals will help us keep focused each day. They will help us to maintain our commitment to God, made not on January 1st but at the waters of baptism. That, in the big scheme of things, is a promise that matters. Happy New Year!

We Are Glad That When We Are ...

- ◆ Discouraged we can pick up the Bible and begin to read it for it "is able to build us up" (Acts 20:32).
- ◆ Doubting we can read Matthew 6:24-33 and be refreshed.
- ◆ Disturbed with the problems of life we can read Romans 8 and feel secured.
- ◆ Distressed with a troubled heart we can find solace in reading John 14:1-6.
- ◆ Drifting away because our faith is growing weak we can read Hebrews 11 and be encouraged by the great saints of old.
- ◆ Dealing with temptation and it seems it is too much and we can read 1 Corinthians 10:13 and see there is a way out.
- ◆ Deserted by those around us and feel that we all alone in this life and we can read Psalms 23 and know that there is
- ◆ Distraught with the guilt of sin we can find the solution in God's Word and be delivered spiritually when we submit our will to His Will (Hebrews 2:9; 5:8-9; 1 Timothy 2:4; Romans 1:16-17; Ephesians 2:8-9; Romans 5:8; Matthew 7:21; John 8:24; Luke 13:3; Romans 10:9-10 and Mark 16:15-16).

Something To Think About

People take your examples far more seriously than they take your advice.

"I must do something" will always solve more problems than "Something must be done."

The most important person to be honest with is yourself.

Eternity is a long time to think about what you should have done.
