In case you haven't heard, SYR is THIS WEEKEND, and we are so excited. There has been so much work done preparing for this great spiritual weekend. It began with the early planning stages, when Aaron was with us. We have great speakers lined up to teach, Bro. Chris Perry and Bro. Brian Reed. We even have some of our own members getting lessons prepared for breakout classes and other spiritual devotionals we are going to have. Micah and Paul have come up with some great competition games for everyone. (*No spoilers here. You will have to ask those that went when we return*) There will also be some time for just sitting back and enjoying the good times with friends. It is our desire that when we all return, that all can say they have grown spiritually and closer with others that were there. We ask that all the members of Bybee Branch and everyone who reads this in the bulletin will pray that we have a safe, enjoyable, and faith building weekend. Look for our article next week for all the details of the things that we have going on this weekend. Oh and Micah wants to remind those that are coming "BRING A PAPER BIBLE". He said you'd know what he meant.

Baptism

We rejoice that Sunday evening following services Talan Mullican was baptized.

*"God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble."*

Psalm 46:1

More Than A Children's Song

Sometimes one of life's greatest lessons can be found in places where we would not think they could be found. There is a simple song which has been sung by children for at least sixty years which has profound truth. In reality, while it may be thought of as a children's song, those who are older would truly profit if they thought about its message:

*"Watch your eyes, watch your eyes what they see.
Watch your eyes, watch your eyes what they see.
For the Father up above is looking down in love,
So watch your eyes what they see."*

Each succeeding verse is similar but changes the word eye and the word see to point to another part of the body. The children point to each part of the body so there is a lot of action. Those of us who are older could profit, not by doing the accompanying actions, but by doing the "action" in our hearts.

WATCH YOUR EYES, WHAT THEY SEE. "The woman saw that the tree was good...pleasant to the eyes" (Gen. 3:6). "All that is in the world...the lust of the eyes...is not of the Father" (1 John 2:16). "The eyes of man are never satisfied" (Pro. 27:20). "The way of a fool is right in his own eyes" (Pro. 12:15).

WATCH YOU EARS, WHAT THEY HEAR. "Hear my prayer, O God: give ear to the words of my mouth" (Psa. 54:2). "He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be an abomination" (Pro. 28:9). "And he read therein before the street...from morning until midday... and the ears of the people were attentive unto the book of the law" (Neh. 8:3) "Incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding" (Pro. 2:2).

WATCH YOUR LIPS, WHAT THEY SAY. "Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile" (Psa. 34:13). "O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth thy praise" (Psa. 51:15). "My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed" (Psa. 71:23). "Lying lips are abomination to the Lord; but they that deal truly are his delight" (Pro. 12:22).

WATCH YOUR HANDS, WHAT THEY DO. "My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes" (Psa. 119:48). "These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abominations unto him... hands what shed innocent blood" (Pro. 6:16-17).

WATCH YOUR FEET, WHERE THEY GO. "I thought on my ways, and turned by feet unto thy testimonies" (Psa. 119:59). "I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I may keep thy word" (Psa. 119:101). "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light to my path" (Psa. 119:105).

Let us sing

I Met the Strangest Man

He said he believed in the Bible, but he never reads it.

He said he thought well of the church of which he is a member, but he never attends or invites others to share in its ministry.

He said a man should be honest with God in money matters, but he never tithes.

He said the younger generation needs the Lord, but he isn't leading them in that direction.

He said the church needs dedicated Christian members, but he isn't one.

He offered some "constructive" criticism of some of the workers—but he never works.

He said the church should do more in ministering to people, but he doesn't help.

He is critical of the way the church is "run," but he never participates.

He says he believes in the Second Coming, but he lives as though the Lord will never return.

He says prayer will change things, but he never prays.

He was a strange man, indeed!
