Quotable Quotes

"There's a new and improved computer available. It combines a word processor and a food processor. It is really helpful for those times when you have to eat your words."

"Preacher," the sweet little lady said, "your sermons are just like the peace of God to me. They seem to be past all understanding."

"Some are willing to do anything to become Christians, except give up their sins."

"What seems essential today may not even be important tomorrow."

"CAN YOU KEEP A SECRET?"

What Do You Expect of God?

A few years ago, I was talking to a Christian about his commitment to God. He said he didn't go to worship much because God had "touched him." He stated that he took his granddaughter, but he hadn't been to worship in three weeks. Church just wasn't what he expected. So, I asked him, just what did he expect?"

What do YOU expect of God?

Some expect God to put a stamp of approval on their lifestyle and to accept them without any change on their part. These folks might reason that since God is just and kind, He would accept them as they are. Jesus, however preached, "Repent, the kingdom of heaven is at hand." He also stated, "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." (Luke 13:3) We have to change for God to accept us.

Some may think very little of God's perspective and only think about their own. Remember, God doesn't think like man does. (Is. 55:8, 9) Man lives in a physical world. Often what man expects in the physical, he also expects in the spiritual. When excitement, entertainment, and pleasure are the way of the physical, some expect that in the spiritual as well. Any church that doesn't provide those is not what they expect.

Sometimes man may think God's ways are unfair. Some said so in the past. (Ezek. 18:25) Those living in a sinful relationship might believe it is unfair that God wants them to separate. Someone else in a dead-end marriage can't believe that God wants them to stay together "till death do you part." Those who are living a sinful lifestyle might consider it unfair that they must leave that lifestyle in order to get to heaven. (Gal. 5:19-21) Yet, who is it that sets the standard of fairness? Who decides right or wrong? God does.

Some may expect God to do what man is supposed to do. God cannot save a person who does not want to be saved. God cannot save someone who has not met His requirements. (Matt. 7:21) When the rich man was in torment as recorded in Luke chapter 16, he wanted someone to go to his brothers on earth to warn them. The answer was, "They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them." (Luke 16:29) Those who want to be saved must follow God's laws. Anything else is not acceptable.

We cannot expect God to strike us with a burst of Bible knowledge. It takes study on the part of man to understand the will of God. The Bereans searched the scriptures to see if the preaching they heard was accurate. (Acts 17:11) We must study God's Word and handle it correctly. (2 Tim. 2:15) Let us pray that we always strive to do what God expects so that we have a good conscience toward Him. (Acts 24:16; 1 Pet. 3:21) God loves us so much that He puts guidelines, rules, and ways in place to help us get through this life and be in heaven one day with Him. If we follow Him, we will achieve that goal.

Father, Where Shall I Work Today?

"Father, where shall I work today?"
And my love flowed warm and free.
Then He pointed me out a tiny spot
And said, "Tend that for Me."

I answered quickly, "Oh no, not there!
Why, no one would ever see,
No matter how well my work was done;
Not that little place for me!"

And the word He spoke, it was not stern;
He answered me tenderly,
"Ah, little one, search that heart of thine.
Art thou working for them or Me?
Nazareth was a little place,
And so was Galilee."

"But you, O man of God, flee these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, gentleness."
