Youth Challenge

This year has seemed to fly by so far. Sickness and an array of strange weather has played a key role in that.

As we continue on in our adventure of 2020 I have a challenge for you. I want for you to try and focus more on God time and less on screen time.

We live in a culture that can be very distracted by all the things we have surrounding us, especially all of the screen time that we have with phones, video games, etc.

Let's try to take back the Bible and focus on the things that eternally matter.

*"Blessed are those who keep His testimonies,
Who seek Him with the whole heart!"
(Psalm 119:2 NKJV)*

Faithful Attendance

God expects (demands) His faithful followers to worship Him. The Scriptures are emphatic in the faithful child of God reflecting their love and loyalty by coming together with the saints, to worship on the first day of the week. While attendance at worship services is NOT the only measuring stick of one's spirituality, it certainly is one spiritual barometer.

In Hebrews 10:25 we read, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." The thought immediately expressed after this admonition is: "For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins" (v. 26). Can there be any doubt what the inspired writer is stating? Don't forsake! If you do, you sin willfully!

In 1 Corinthians 16: 1-2, we note the disciples were to give as they assembled on the first day of the week. Yes, that was every first day — every Sunday. The church of the first century "came together" to break bread (Lord's Supper) (Acts 20:7), whole church, to worship (1 Cor. 11: 18; 14:23,26). Note also Matthew 18:20: "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." The fact is: Christians have an appointment with the Lord on first day of the week, on every first day of the week.

By your attendance you show:

1. your love for the Lord (John 14:15), with all your mind, body, soul and strength (Mark 12:30);
2. your desire to become stronger (1 Peter 2:2-3);
3. your faith in God (James 2: 18);
4. a desire to grow spiritually (2 Peter 1:5ff);
5. concern to refrain from falling away (2 Peter 2:20-22);
6. your light shining for the Lord (Matt. 5: 16)

7. the example of first century Christians in your life today;
8. an excellent example for others to follow (1 Cor. 11: 1; Prov. 22:6);
9. the great benefit from treasured fellowship with the followers of God (Acts 2:38-47);
10. your refusal to serve Satan and that you are not his disciple (James 4:7);
11. you are seeking the Lord first (Matt. 6:33);
12. you are pressing toward the mark of the prize (Phil. 3: 13-14).

Question: Under what circumstances would a faithful child of God ever NOT want to assemble with the saints of God?

~ Paul Sain ~

My (Adopted) Prayer

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy;

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,

To be understood as to understand,

To be loved as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

It is in dying to self that we are born to eternal life.
