Communion Packets

Even though the services have returned on Sunday morning there may be those who will continue to worship from home and need the communion packets. These may be picked up on Friday from 9-10 AM and 5-6 PM. Those who wish may leave their contribution at that time or mail to the church address with Attention: Stanley Graves on the envelope.

Great Sunday!

It is hard to describe the joy of being able to assemble together again! The verse that came to my mind Sunday was 1 Thessalonians 2:17, "But we, brethren, having been taken away from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavored more eagerly to see your face with great desire."

Others remarked how good it was as well. Some suggesting that certain hymns were stuck in their mind. One said the song "Sweet Welcome Home" was what she was thinking on the way to services.

What a positive message when the members of the Lord's body (the church) take such delight and pleasure in assembling to worship God! Consider the great old hymn, "How Sweet, How Heavenly"

How sweet, how heav'nly is the sight,
When those that love the Lord
In one another's peace delight,
And thus fulfill His Word.

When each can feel his brother's sigh
And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart.

When, free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love.

When love, in one delightful stream,
Through every bosom flows;
When union sweet, and dear esteem,
In every action glows.

Love is the golden chain that binds
The happy souls above;
And he's an heir of Heav'n who finds
His bosom glow with love.

We get to do it all over again this coming Sunday! "I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go into the house of the Lord." (Psalm 122:1).

Graduates

Each year we recognize the graduates of high school and college in the Bybee Banner. If you or your child is graduating, please email a photo to Tony (preacher@bybeebranch.org) along with the degree being received and the school from which is being received.

Untying And Uniting

Error unties and truth unites. Think about it. Error seeks to break apart the truth. Error causes disharmony and discord. But truth seeks to bring together those who agree with it.

Now, notice something about the opening statement of this article: Error unties and truth unites. Notice that the only difference in the two descriptive words "unties" and "unites" is where the "t" is placed. Let's let the "t" represent the cross of Christ. It makes a difference where we put Christ and His word in our lives.

If we have Christ positioned properly and first in our lives, then His word will unify us with all others who do the same. But if we put Christ and His word anywhere lower than number one in our lives, we are positioning ourselves for error and disunity to creep in. Something to think about.

"Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (2 Tim. 2:15)
